Griffen Challenged After School Talk

The proposed Greater Kingston Area Consolidation was aired last night before the Men's Club of the Old Dutch Church in an address by Francis E. Griffen, chief of the bureau of rural services, State Education Department, followed by a question-and-answer period which produced sharp controversy.

Asked what State Commissioner of Education James E. Allen Jr., could do about consolidation, Griffen replied that the "next move" was not exactly up to the commissioner but to the people of Kingston.

If the people are able to indicate to Allen that the city referendum last April (a narrow defeat for consolidation) does not truly represent the feeling of the citizens of the community he may then sign the consolidation order, Griffen told some 80 members and guests of the club.

Soper Objects

Dr. Earl Soper, superintendent of Kingston public schools, objected to Griffen's position and tossed the ball back to Commissioner Allen.

He said he felt the decision was clearly up to the commissioner, that it is "the commissioner's problem," that no recourse remained to the people of Kingston and that some way must be found "to get the commissioner off the hook."

"I think it's time the commissioner faced the issue squarely," either signing the consolidation order or vacating it, he stated.

Wouldn't Vote Again

A member of the audience wanted to know if Griffen meant that the City of Kingston should hold another referendum on consolidation. Griffen answered in the negative.

He was then asked how "strong" the popular statement in favor of consolidation would have to be in order to persuade the commissioner to sign the order consolidating Kingston with 25 rural districts. Griffen replied that he was unable to answer the question, that Allen would have to answer for himself. He explained that Allen refused to sign the order for consolidation because of a "moral principle."

Poll Disregarded

The issue of principle resulted from a "straw vote" held by the Kingston Board of Education which resulted in a decision against consoliadtion—2,559 against and 2,281 in favor. The board then voted eight to one for consolidation. It was legally empowered to do so, but the commissioner declined to sign the order, feeling that a "moral principle" was involved.

Someone wanted to know if a "greater moral issue" was not at stake—the proper education of children of Kingston and outlying areas.

Griffen did not answer the question as to moral issue but expressed the view that proper education of children was, indeed, the major objective. He indicated that establishment of a central school near Kingston in competition with the urban plant would be a waste of money, would dilute and jeopardize the present educational program of the Kingston system.

Economy Party Speaks

A political flavor was injected into the meeting with the presence and participation of top Economy Party brass — Worthington L. Rider, a candidate for mayor in the last election, Howard Mansfield II, candidate for Member of Assembly, and Eugene DeDea, who has been principally identified as the educational spokesman for the Kingston Civic Association, heading the association's education committee.

Mansfield challenged Griffen and the State Education Department on its consolidation policy in general throughout the state, asking if there wasn't a very considerable opposition to the master plan of the SED, a considerable resistance to it.

Griffen replied that the consolidation plan, part of the general redistricting of the state, had encountered much less resistance and controversy than had been anticipated by the State Education Department.

Don't Trust Albany

Mansfield then switched his attack, charging that the real problem was rural suspicion of the State Education Department.

He stated with considerable vehemence that the people in this area "have no use for anything that comes out of Albany," that he had "absolute proof" of falsification of records and other data emanating from the SED.

Griffen did not respond to the attack except to remark that he had had several conversations with Mansfield in recent months pertaining to educational issues.

DeDea injected that since all this material has been "hashed out" before and the people turned consolidation down at the polls there was only one way for pro-

Return To Pescadores Unharmed

Cover Is Given By U.S. Warships

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Chinese Nationalist supply ships, convoyed by American warships, reached Quemoy beach today but were forced back by a heavy Red artillery barrage before they could unload the bulk of their cargo.

Associated Press correspondent Gene Kramer, in a dispatch from Quemoy off the Red mainland, said an "intense saturation shelling" forced two supply ships to withdraw after they had unloaded only a few supplies for the beleaguered Nationalist garrison.

American warships stood off at a distance, he said.

The Nationalist Defense Ministry said earlier that the supply ships had returned undamaged to their Pescadores base after unloading.

First Since Sunday

This was the first attempt to run supplies to the garrison since Monday, when Communist artillery fire blew up an ammunition ship on the Quemoy beach and forced another to retreat after losing most of its cargo.

Stormy weather prevented the dispatch of convoys on Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Red artillery opened up at the appearance of the convoy today after being silent 21 hours.

Meantime, the admiral commanding the fleet's carrier planes said that any Communist planes attacking U. S. aircraft will be pursued to the coast of Communist China and possibly beyond.

The American ships convoyed the desperately needed supplies through the international waters of the Formosa Strait for the first time on Sunday. That time there was no Red opposition.

The second supply convoy was Monday. Communist artillery blew up a Nationalist ammunition ship on the beach. The other landing barge backed off and lost most of its supplies.

The U.S. command on Formosa announced that American jet pilots have begun taking an active part in the defense of Formosa itself.

A spokesman said American air units are now in position at bases here and "have assumed full alert responsibilities for nighttime defense of Taiwan (Formosa)."

That means the planes stand on runways, fully armed and warmed up. American pilots in combat flight suits are ready to take off the moment there is any report of unidentified planes approaching.

The spokesman would not say how many U.S. planes and pilots are involved, but it is generally believed there are about 250 to 300 American Air Force and Marine jets on Formosa ready for combat.

Talking with newsmen aboard his flatship, the carrier Midway, Rear Adm. Ralph S. Clarke said his pilots now are restricted to flying no closer than 20 miles to the Red China coast.

Could Go Beyond

But, said the commander of the 7th Fleet's carrier striking force, if Communist planes attack U.S. ones, they will be pursued to the coast and possibly beyond. It would be up to the individual pilot's discretion whether to pursue farther than the coast, the admiral said.

So far no Communist MIGs have been sighted by his fliers, Clarke said, nor have any been picked up on radar screens of his Task Force 77. The 7th Fleet planes have provided air cover for U. S. cruisers and destroyers escorting Chinese Nationalist supply ships to within three miles of Quemoy Island.

Sept. 16 Deadline For Chamber Vote On Consolidation

There is still time for members of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce to vote on the school consolidation issue.

Chamber President Robert L. Sabin announced today that a special committee will count the ballots at 7 p. m. Tuesday evening, Sept. 16, prior to the regular meeting of the board of directors. The results will then be reported at the directors' meeting and a decision made as to what further action, if any, should be taken by the Chamber of Commerce.

This announcement was prompted by inquiries from several members asking if it was too late to return the ballots. Sabin said that all ballots received up to 7 p. m. next Tuesday will be counted. "Ballots received to date indicate an unusually high percentage of voting," Sabin continued, "but we are anxious to have every member express a Yes or No opinion on the school consolidation issue."

Ike to Address U.S. Tonight on Far East Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower goes on nationwide radio-TV tonight to seek more support among the peoples of America and the free world for his Far East policies.

At the Newport, R.I., presidential vacation headquarters, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty was asked today by the Providence (R.I.) Journal-Bulletin whether Secretary of State Dulles prompted the President to make the speech.

"So far as I know the suggestion came from the President," Hagerty replied.

The President will make the address from the White House at 9 p.m. (EST).

Live on ABC-TV

It will be carried live over ABC television and major radio networks, with NBC and CBS television carrying delayed telecasts at 10:15 p.m. (EST).

Hagerty said Eisenhower decided to make the talk after consulting by telephone with Secretary of State Dulles. He said the President would return to Newport Friday morning.

Two events Tuesday apparently supported what Dulles' public affairs advisers have been telling him: the U.S. public and the allies were not comprehending the whys and wherefors of the China crisis.

Those events were Dulles' 45-minute news conference Tuesday morning and his hour-long conference Tuesday afternoon with Australian Ambassador Robert G. Casey.

Voices Uneasiness

Casey, a veteran diplomat, was reported to have voiced uneasiness about U.S. policies. But after an hour with Dulles and a half hour with Walter S. Robertson, assistant secretary for Far East affairs, Casey pronounced himself possessed of "much more understanding."

His statement seemed to bear out Dulles' news conference comment that in time more and more allies and even more neutrals would come to appreciate U.S. Far East policy.

That policy includes support of Nationalist China, tolerance of a Nationalist military buildup on the islands within sight of the Red-held mainland, and threatening to meet force with force if the Communists seemed about to wrest the islands from the Nationalists.

Meeting on Bridge Here Monday

State Letter Reveals Span Being Studied

Further assurances that the state is giving serious consideration to the construction of a new bridge over the Rondout Creek between here and Port Ewen were indicated in a letter from the Public Works Department read at the Esopus Town Board meeting Wednesday night.

In a letter acknowledging receipt of the Town of Esopus' resolution seeking action on a new bridge, John W. Johnson, state superintendent of public works, said "this matter is being studied by our engineers who in the near future will present a plan which will accomplish this purpose."

Indicates Local Action

Local action on the bridge proposal was indicated this week when a meeting of the bridge committees of Ulster County Board of Supervisors and the Common Council is scheduled for Monday in the City Hall at 7 p. m.

The supervisors' committee includes Roger W. Mabie (D) of Town of Esopus; Benjamin A. Storms, (R) Second Ward, and James E. Martin, (R) 12th Ward. The Common Council committee consists of Alderman James J. Ryan, Democratic majority leader, representing the 10th Ward; Samuel Perry, (R) Fifth Ward, and Frank C. Sass, (D) Seventh Ward.

The Town of Esopus resolution was passed unanimously at the board meeting of July 9. It was introduced by Councilmen Stirling Potter and Sol Rosenthal.

A companion resolution was introduced by Supervisor Mabie at the Ulster County Board of Supervisors' meeting July 10 and was tabled for further study.

Information that a new bridge was being considered and under study by state engineers was first reported in The Freeman July 11.

Repairs Are Assured

Regarding a request by the board to the New York Central Railroad seeking repairs at three rail crossings in the town, including Union Center Road, Ulster Park; Shaupeneak Road, Esopus, and Rosenthal Lane, Ulster Park, a communication was received assuring the board that repairs would be made in the near future.

Supervisor Mabie reported that in answer to a request, Motorola Communications and Electronics, Inc., will send a representative to meet with members and officials of the five volunteer fire companies of the town Tuesday, Sept. 23, for a discussion on installation and operation of the two-way radio communication system recently approved for Ulster County volunteer companies. The meeting is scheduled at 8 p. m. in the Town Hall at Port Ewen.

Water Work Completed

Supervisor Mabie reported that work on the extension of the water main connecting Hamilton Court and Herriman Street was complete and now forms a continuous loop.

A petition seeking action on the project, and containing the names of 15 residents of Hamilton Court, was submitted to the Town Board on August 18. However, work on the project had been in progress and was completed before the petition

Contractors Told Assn. Is Vital In Bargain Talks

The Ulster County Contractors and Builders Association, which has been affiliated with the State Association for the past year, last evening at a dinner meeting at Governor Clinton Hotel, received its charter from the Building Industry Employers Association of New York State.

Presentation of the charter was made by Edward C. Frick, executive-secretary of the B.I.E., who congratulated the local contractors on their progressive step.

The charter was received on behalf of the local contractors by Gilbert Schline, president of the Ulster County Association. Other officers of the Ulster County group are Axel Johansen, vice-president, and George H. Swart, secretary and treasurer.

Pleased With Development

Following the presentation of the charter Paul B. Richards, managing director, General Building Contractors of New York State, Inc., spoke to the group, congratulating the Ulster County Association on behalf of the General Building Contractors of New York State on receipt of its chapter from B.I.E.

Richards said that it was not too long ago that the General

Uncle Still Not Convinced

Boy, 8, Confesses He Killed Parents

NEW YORK (AP) — Melvin Nimer Jr., a blond 8-year-old with a crew-cut, says he plotted the murder of his parents—and carried it out with a kitchen knife while they slept.

His calmly told story fits the facts of the bloody Staten Island stabbing originally attributed to a white-masked intruder.

Not Arrested Yet

But the district attorney emphasized that there is still much to be explained about the Sept. 2 murders and that Melvin has not been arrested.

A psychiatric report on the child indicated he has a persecution complex and a personality compatible with the commission of violence.

The boy's uncle, Dr. Harold Nimer, said he does not believe the confession to the murders of Dr. Melvin Nimer and his pretty brunette wife Lore Jean, both 31.

The boy's confession was obtained by Dist. Atty. John M. Braisted of Richmond County last Saturday, but was not disclosed until late Wednesday night.

Goes to Funeral

In the meantime, the calm, dry-eyed youngster flew to Utah and attended his parents' funeral—apparently never indicating that he had confessed.

Braisted said Melvin—taken to the house of death Wednesday night—"indicated to us the manner in which his parents were murdered."

No matter what the final findings in the case may be the boy could not be charged with homicide because of his age.

Braisted said young Melvin told him:

Plotted In Advance

That he plotted the murders days in advance—apparently aggrieved by some real or fancied actions of his parents. Braisted declined to say just what the grievances were.

That he seized a knife from the kitchen, walked upstairs to the parents' bedroom, and stabbed his father first, then his mother.

That his father somehow staggered to his feet and chased him downstairs, then collapsed there—where police found him.

Police Force Is To Get Five Men On September 21

Five of nine men still needed on the police department will go on duty as regular officers Sept. 21 as the result of police board action Monday, and last night when the board spent most of its time reviewing departmental rules and regulations, which were adopted.

The only new rule divulged affects the press and radio, which no longer have direct access to the police blotter.

In its effort to keep all "unauthorized" persons beyond the business end of the pale, the department now includes reporters, who are to be supervised by an officer in charge, or another, who might be designated, during perusals of the blotter notations. The rule became effective immediately.

Ready for Trial

The board directed that a letter be sent to Attorney N. LeVan Haver, who represents former Acting Chief Robert F. Murphy, now under suspension, to indicate readiness for start of the departmental trial of Murphy, who was suspended for 30 days upon announcement of charges against him.

Haver had recently requested the board for early action.

Regulations Reviewed

The board reviewed the regulations with Lt. Kenneth E. Weidenborner, of the state police, who was assigned here months ago to supervise reorganization of the department. The move resulted of investigations of the department which followed the

Polio Hard on 4 Areas

Record Low Year Is Over-All Picture

By JOHN A. BARBOUR
Associated Press Science Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Four states — Michigan, Texas, Florida and California—are taking the brunt of this season's polio attack, and late reports indicate that Detroit may be the hardest hit city.

However, over-all, the United States may be experiencing a record low year for the post-Salk vaccine period.

1,656 Under 1957

The nation showed 2,223 cases for the 35 weeks ended Aug. 30. This compares with 3,879 cases for the same period last year and 13,711 for the average period of the years 1953-57.

But 40 per cent of the cases fell on four states. Texas had 297, Michigan had 292, Florida had 160 and California had 146 for 35-week totals.

And later figures from the National Foundation's Wayne (Detroit) County chapter showed the case lead had jumped a 356—more than the whole state of Michigan reported 11 days before.

111 Caces in N. Y.

Other high states according to U.S. Public Health Service totals were: New York 111, New Jersey 110 and Ohio 94.

There have been several outbreaks of polio across the nation. Another city reporting a sizable number was Miami, Fla. National Foundation spokesmen said there were a reported 66 cases in Dade County.

The reason polio still afflicts so many in the nation is because so many people have failed to get their Salk vaccine shots, the National Foundation says.

U-A Group Feels School Tax Will Hurt Expansion

The school tax rate in School District No. 8, town of Ulster, will make it more difficult to bring new business and industry into the district. it was reported at the first meeting of the Ulster-Albany Avenue Businessmen's Association last night at Cyprus Inn.

It was the opinion of members that the most attractive area in seeking new business and industry would be Lake Katrine School District No. 4 north of Boice's lane.

The tax rate is $38.65 per thousand in that district. Next year it will be $42.40, including the costs of a new addition (four classrooms) voted by residents of the district.

The tax rate in School District No. 8 (Chambers School) is $97.08 per thousand this year.

It was reported that the association is compiling data to be printed in brochure form to be mailed to prospective businesses and industries which might be interested in locating in the township.

It was disclosed that the annual budget of School District No. 8 is published about two weeks before the annual meeting in July.

Members felt that a copy of the budget should be acquired next year and reviewed carefully by the association. A resolution was adopted to obtain a copy and publish a summary in The Freeman in order to familiarize residents of the district with its contents.

It was also suggested that the association pay for the cost of paper to print copies of the budget for distribution.

The association voted unanimously to sponsor the Indians in the Little League for another three years.

The annual banquet for the Indians will be held at the Chambers School Oct. 18 at which time awards will be presented.

The next meeting of the association will be held Oct. 8.

President Ted Musialkiewicz presided at the opening session last night.

Cancer Crusade in 1958 Reported Very Successful

The American Cancer Society's Cancer Crusade in up-state New York for 1958 officially ended August 31, with a record of more dollars, more contributors and more volunteer Crusaders than ever. Anouncement was made by Alan Stevenson, executive director of the New York State Division. Official tabulations put the figures at $1,285,000, 2,225,000 contributors and 45,000 volunteers. Even greater numbers were reached with the American Cancer Society's life-saving information about cancer and cancer progress.

Locally, Dr. William S. Bush, president of the Ulster County Unit of the Cancer Society, reported a total income for the year of $27,541.34. This was $765 more than was contributed during the previous year.

The Cancer Crusade here was headed this year by Leo F. Kilcoyne, who, as chairman, developed an organization of more than 400 people to visit homes and businesses with information about ways of protecting individuals from unnecessary suffering and death from cancer.

The society's program includes popularizing cancer's seven danger signals, the promotion of periodic health examination, chest X-rays, breast self-examination and uterine cancer cell tests as specific means of finding cancer in early, more curable stages. The person-to-person contact during the Crusade is considered to be a most effective means of getting people to take the steps necessary to protect themselves.

In addition, the contributions support a vast cancer research

UAW Putting Main Pressure on Ford

DETROIT (AP)—The Big Three auto makers headed back into contract talks today with a threat of the industry's first major strike since 1950 hanging over Ford Motor Co.

The United Auto Workers, bogged down in fruitless contract negotiations with General Motors, Ford and Chrysler for almost six months, singled out Ford Wednesday night as its strike target and set the deadline for next Wednesday.

Along with the decision to put the main pressure on Ford, an optimistic note came out of a day-long meeting of the UAW's 25-man International Executive Board.

"For the first time in five months," said a statement issued by the union, "we can see a possibility of honorable and equitable settlement on a new contract without the necessity of strike action."

Strengthened now by the auto companies' need for smooth production in the opening weeks of the 1959 model run, the UAW said its hopes of a settlement without a strike were bolstered by a change in the bargaining attitudes of the companies.

Mexico Deports Four Yanks Over Red Ties

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Four Americans suspected of Communist activity in Mexico's recent wave of strikes and riots have been deported to the United States.

The Mexico Interior Department also announced Wednesday night that many other foreigners also were being investigated, including Ivan Yabanovich, a Russian; and Frederick Vanderbilt Field, the wealthy American who fled here to avoid testifying before a U. S. congressional committee.

The department identified the four deportees as Bernard Blasenheim, former New Yorker and manager of a construction company here; Albert Lane Lewis, writer and former head of the University of Mexico theater department; Max Schlafrock Lederman, who was first deported last year but returned after winning a court injunction at the border; and John Milton Bright, not further identified.

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — The leader of the provisional government which turned over its powers to President Frondizi May 1 has warned his successor to clean the extremists out of his government or face disaster.

In probably his sternest speech since taking over after dictator Juan Peron was ousted in 1955, former Provisional President Pedro Aramburu Wednesday night urged Frondizi to make drastic changes in the government's program and replace officials.

Frondizi's government has come under increasing attacks from critics who denounce its Leftist and Peronist influences.

Road Blocks Set Up

PARIS (AP) — The Interior Ministry said today it is ordering road blocks set up throughout France to stop cars carrying Algerian terrorists and their arms.

Jap Police Quiz U.S. Airman in Fatal Shooting

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese police began questioning A.3.C. Peter E. Longpre today after the U.S. Air Force ruled Japan can try him for fatally shooting a Japanese youth.

The police questioning will determine whether the 19-year-old airman from Lakewood, Calif., will be indicted. As a minor under Japanese law, he could be turned over to a family court, which assigns less severe penalties than the criminal courts.

While on guard duty last Sunday at Johnson Air Base, 20 miles northwest of Tokyo, Longpre fired his carbine. The bullet went through the window of a train 300 yards away, hitting Sachiywki Miyamura in the back.

The Air Force said an intensive investigation "clearly shows that the shooting occurred when Airman Longpre was not actively engaged in guard duty and, while apparently accidental, came about because Airman Longpre violated his instructions in the unauthorized loading and use of his weapon.

"Under these circumstances, the administrative agreement between the United States of America and Japan governing jurisdiction leaves no alternative but to allow the Japanese to exercise their right to primary jurisdiction."

Longpre described the shooting as "a horrible mistake." His defense counsel, 1st Lt. Hugh R. Braun of Athens, Wis., said Longnttereteitoc dbgndus d rio ne pre did not contest being turned over to Japanese authorities.

Van Diver Is Easy Winner in Georgia

ATLANTA (AP) — Lt. Gov. Ernest Vandiver won a landslide victory Wednesday in his nomination for governor in Georgia's Democratic primary.

Vandiver, a 40-year-old farmer from Lavonia, overwhelmingly defaeted his two opponents in the popular vote.

Nomination in the Democratic primary is equivalent to election.

Vandiver declared himself an adamant segregationist and vowed he would never allow the races to mix in Georgia.

Gov. Marvin Griffin was ineligible to run again under a law limiting the executive to one four-year term. Vandiver takes office in January.

Four Georgia congressmen apparently overrode opposition for renomination, and six others won renomination without opposition.

Doesn't Pay to Work

LONDON (AP) — It doesn't pay Dennis Fox to work in this welfare state of Britain.

The 32-year-old laborer has no job but still manages to take home the equivalent of $26.60 each week —in family allowances for his six children, unemployment pay and special national assistance.

"The money is more than he is likely to earn if he finds a job," a probation officer told a Huddersfield court Wednesday.

Fox was hauled in because he had failed to pay 70 cents a week to a former employer from whom he embezzled $66. Action was deferred after Fox agreed to make the weekly payments.

End Feud: McElroy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense McElroy has ordered a damper on Army - Air Force feuding over whose antiaircraft missile is the better.

McElroy told reporters Wednesday that both the Army new Nike Hercules and the Air Force new Bomarc missile are needed.

McElroy indicated a decision is upcoming soon on another touchy issue between the Army and the Air Force — intermediate-range ballistic missiles.

Plans Ohio Plant

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. today announced plans for construction of a multi-million-dollar glass fabricating plant on a 49-acre site at Crestline, Ohio.

Robinson F. Barker, vice president of the firm's glass division, said 250 to 275 will be employed when the one-story plant is completed next year. It will serve major automotive customers.

Richer Over Wrong Door

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mrs. Florence Kotz Ross, a 40-year-old secretary, is $7,500 richer — because she isn't Marilyn Monroe.

Mrs. Ross was behind the celebrated "wrong door" smashed Nov. 5, 1954, when four men burst into her Hollywood apartment searching for the blonde movie queen. Miss Monroe was in an adjacent apartment.

The settlement was paid by Joe DiMaggio, Miss Monroe's former husband, who was identified by Mrs. Ross in a $200,000 civil suit as leader of the raiding party.

Frightens Bees Though

CASTLETON, N. Y. (AP)—John Van Busichen, 19, chose an old abandoned car behind his home as a target for his .22 caliber rifle Wednesday.

The shot disturbed a swarm of bees in the car. They took off after Van Busichen.

He ran, stumbled and fell. The rifle discharged. A bullet went through Van Busichen's right hand.

The shot frightened the bees away.

QUEMOY'S COMPLEXITY

The situation involving the Chinese offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu is far too explosive to be allowed to become entangled in the complex word games of statesmen and diplomats. But there are signs this could happen.

By the frequency of their warnings to Red China, President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles, obviously are trying hard to dissuade Peiping from invading either those tiny islands or the Chinese Nationalist stronghold of Formosa.

Yet neither one, nor any other spokesman for the United States government, has said flatly that we would come to the defense of Quemoy-Matsu in every eventuality.

Both the Eisenhower and the Dulles comments are hedged about with qualifications which tended to get lost in the general furore over the tone of their warnings. A A careful reading of their words shows that the President has not yet finally determined to assist in the offshore islands' defense in all circumstances.

To be sure, Senator Smith of New Jersey later said Dulles told him such a defense would be made. But on an issue which could mean war, secondhand accounts simply cannot be taken as definite.

Nor should we have to rely upon an unidentified government spokesman for word that we might bomb the Chinese mainland if we decided to act in the area.

Under congressional resolution, Mr. Eisenhower has the authority to go to the offshore islands' defense if he deems that necessary to assure the defense of Formosa. If he has not yet made such a finding—and that is what his and Dulles' words indicate—then nothing new on the issue has in fact been said.

The situation is made more complex by the fact that Chinese Nationalist spokesmen are saying that even if Red China does not open an all-out attack on the small islands, U.S. aid might be needed to break the present Red blockade which menaces supply lines from Formosa.

Thus the question no longer is simply under what circumstances would we defend Quemoy and Matsu if they are attacked. It is also whether we would step in just to keep them going as they are.

And, despite all the stern warnings uttered, we do not yet have clear answers to these questions from the high sources which alone can speak to the American people, to Red China and the world on such vital matters.

WAY OF THE JUNGLE

A few clear hints of United States policy with regard to the islands of Quemoy and Matsu off the coast of Communist China have now emerged from the fog. The hints may not be reassuring to citizens who still wonder about the good sense of involving this nation in the defense of those little islands, but at least there is less cause for confusion.

The U. S. position, as outlined by Secretary of State Dulles, now appears to be essentially this: If the Chinese Communists follow up their bombardments with a full-scale attack on the offshore Islands, and if that attack threatens to be successful, then United States forces will move in to defend the islands.

A Dulles pointed out, although shelling by the Red Chinese has been most threatening it is not certain that they will launch an all-out effort to take Quemoy, Matsu and Formosa. It is important to note, in this connection, that the strongest deterrent against attack will be this country's belated statement of where it stands.

It has been said that Nationalist troops may be able to defend the islands without any active U.S. help other than logistic support. This is true, but the risk is a great one for this nation to take. We are now committed to move in with force if, in the judgment of U.S. commanders on the scene, the Nationalists are threatened with defeat. Once our troops, ships and planes become involved, no one can say where the road would lead.

The Dulles statement properly concluded with a renewed plea for peaceable consideration of Red Chinese claims to the offshore islands. That is the civilized way. Open conflict is the way of the jungle.

THE ESSENTIAL STRUGGLE

While bankers and brokers and lawyers and politicians trick and connive and pat themselves on the chest for their genius and the things they get away with, their world moves on to destruction. We are not near the final stages of a continuing revolution, which after 40 years, we still do not know how to meet.

Essentially our struggle is over beliefs and it has been human experience that those who have ideals and beliefs, however erroneous, will triumph over those whose faith is a vacuum and whose sole concern in life is materialistic. It is this which Americans, as a people, have not been able or willing to understand. This is the way "Pravda' assesses the situation:

"The great and unconquerable teaching of outstanding victories. It lights the way for workers of the world in the struggle for their bright future. The greatest event of our time has been the formation of the mighty world socialist system. Marxism-Leninism has achieved a historic victory in countries whose territory amounts to a quarter of the world and whose population is about one billion people. If only recently the Soviet Union was the only country of triumphant socialism, now a whole number of people's democratic countries are setting about the accomplishment of socialist construction . . ."

This is heady language and means much more than an extra bathtub or less toil. It means faith and the kind of faith that the early Christians knew when they set out to conquer the world for ideas which they were sure to be true.

Watching the television, I am importuned, as you are, to be sure to vote Election Day. This being an advertisement of the Advertising Council of the American Heritage Foundation, it is impartial. It does not recommend a candidate or denounce one. It does not lay down a guide to current issues.

All it says is that the citizen go through the mechanism of voting. Where I vote, this can be done secretly in a booth, facing a machine. It is not really necessary to vote for anyone to get out of the booth.

The partian has an easy time of it. He votes for his party's nominees, good, bad or indifferent. Maybe he knows one or two personally and he would not lend them any money, but he votes for them anyhow because they belong to his party.

The independent, as he is called, has a more difficult time. He knows that issues are more readily enunciated than believed. He therefore votes for the Man. He is presented by the two major parties with two men. He looks them over and wonders how it came about. There must be a system.

Elections, as recently as 40 years ago, were tremendously exciting occasions because the Republic was a reality to most citizens. It was not merely a government that sat in Washington or in a state capital; it was something that represented the will of the people or something that had failed and the people had to get rid of to preserve the Republic. Now the government is a mechanism of bureaus and offices and tax collectors. The Fourth Republic in France collapsed because it meant nothing more than a congeries of bureaus and offices and civil servants and politicians who clung to their jobs that alone meant bread. And they live by bread alone.

In the United States no such leadership as De Gaulle this year or Winston Churchill in 1940 has yet appeared and we move from election to election choosing glamor men. It may yet come that we shall select a man for the perfection of his choice of neckties. It is interesting that before World War II appeared, Professor Pitirim A. Sorokin of Harvard, one of the few prophetic voices in this country, wrote (1937):

". . . The oblique rays of the sun still illumine the glory of the passing epoch. But the light is fading, and in the deepening shadows it becomes more and more difficult to see clearly and to orient ourselves safely in the confusions of the twilight. The night of the transitory period begins to loom before us, with its nightmares, frightening shadows, and heartrending horrors. Beyond it, however, the dawn of a new great Ideational culture is probably waiting to greet the men of the future."

Parent Shouldn't Delay if Tonsil Removal Is Advised

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

The difficult problem of tonsillitis and removal of the tonsils is raised again by a young mother.

She says that her first child was born when she and her husband lived far out in the sticks, and they knew little about raising children. Her little boy is now three years old, she says. He had his first case of tonsillitis when six months old and has had attacks at intervals ever since.

Now tonsillectomy has been recommended and the mother wants to know if the trouble could have been avoided by starting the child out on the right kind of diet.

Diet alone can neither prevent nor bring on tonsillitis.

Inflammation of the tonsils of an acute nature is almost certainly the result of germs in that tissue. They probably reached the tonsils through the air—sometimes because of contact with others carrying the disease germs or because of infected milk.

This raises the question of removal of the tonsils. It should be decided on an individual basis, though in an instance of this sort repeated attacks of acute tonsilitis can be considered a good indication for having them taken out.

Other reasons for removal of the tonsils are usually considered to include difficulty in swallowing, breating or talking caused by enlargement, catarrah or other infections of the middle ear, and evidence suggesting that chronic infection of the tonsils is causing rheumatism, kidney inflammation (Bright's disease or nephritis) or other difficulties elsewhere in the body.

There are believed to be some reasons for not taking out the tonsils, including the presence of acute inflammation. Tuberculosis of the lungs, diabetes and any one of several blood disorders are also commonly thought to be reasons for leaving the tonsils alone.

The tonsils are made up of what is known as lymphoid tissue. The adenoids lying in the back of the nose are made up of similar tissue, can be enlarged and cause mouth breathing, may harbor germs and cause chronic infection, and therefore are frequently removed at the same time as the tonsils.

Most specialists in this field believe that diseased tonsils and adenoids should be removed surgically. They are sometimes treated with X-ray, by coagulation with an electric needle or by radium (in the case of the adenoids).

This operation is not entirely without risk, though the risk is very slight, and there is no use doing it unless there is a good chance that it will improve the health.

If needed, it seems best to go ahead with it without delay.

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, (NEA)—The first Negro voting rights suit filed in U. S. District Court at Columbus, Ga., under the Civil Rights Act of 1957 is historic.

It is also, in all probability, the forerunner of a number of such cases and long litigation to establish equal voting rights for all U. S. citizens, regardless of race or color.

The Georgia case was carefully selected by the Department of Justic and its filing carefully timed.

It has been under investigation for some months. Its filing was delayed until after W. Wilson White, the first U. S. assistant attorney general in charge of the new Civil Rights Division had been confirmed and Congress had adjourned.

The Terrell County, Ga., case was chosen for the first suit because it was believed to offer clear-cut evidence.

FOUR OF THE FIVE Dawson, Ga., Negroes whom the Justice Department complained alleges were denied the right to register on the grounds of inability to read correctly and intelligibly are school teachers and college graduates. One holds a master's degree from New York University.

The action asks for an injunction requiring that registrars of Terrell County to end discriminatory practices.

This case will be tried without a jury before one of the two judges assigned to the Middle District of Georgia. Which of the judges will hear the case has not been determined.

If the injunction is granted, but if there is later noncompliance and a contempt of court case develops, this also may be heard by a judge without jury trial.

If, however, the contempt penalty exceeds $300 or 45 days imprisonment, the defendant may demand a jury trial.

These are the provisions of the famous jury-trial amendment which southern Senators tacked onto the bill before its final passage Aug. 29, 1957.

The original version of the bill as passed by the House of Representatives was much broader. It aimed at protection of all civil rights. This was cut down by the Senate to cover voting rights cases only, after a hard fight.

Sen. Strom Thurmond (D.-SC) held the Senate floor a record 24 hours and 18 minutes against the bill.

Senator Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) declared Aug. 13, 1957:

"I close by saying to my Democratic friends that if you think you have taken the civil rights issue out of the 1958 and 1960 campaigns by the passage of the so-called compromise civil rights bill, you have a rude awakening ahead of you. . . . The minority groups know when they are being fooled. They know they are being fooled by the Senate civil rights bill, and by the Democratic leadership which tries to present it as something it is not."

Senator Richard Russell (D-Ga.) leader of the southern opposition, predicted that it would be administered by a politically minded attorney general (then Herbert Brownell Jr.) who would be constantly pressed by Vice President Richard M. Nixon to apply its powers to the southern states "at such places and in such times and manners as the NCAAP, of which the vice president is the most distinguished member, may demand."

GOV. MARVIN GRIFFIN (D-Ga.) declared after passage of the bill that he would recommend an election law to by-pass the civil rights act. "We are not going to let a federal judge tell us who can vote," he pledged.

Such an election law was passed by the Georgia legislature. It became effective March 25, 1958.

The complaint now filed by Assistant Attorney General White and District Attorney Frank O. Evans alleges that white applicants for registration were given hearings and registered on March 24. When literacy tests were administered to Negro applicants thereafter, different and more stringent standards were applied to them than were applied to white applicants.

Press-Confidence Abuse Seen as Danger to Nation

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — At a critical time — when at any moment a miscalculation as to American resoluteness and firmness can cause an enemy to take a chance and start a military action which could lead to a big war — it may be asked whether all the reporters who cover the news of the top officials of our government are facing up to the obligations of a responsible press. Also, are the selfish politicians putting partisanship and the pursuit of party advantage above patriotism?

These questions are asked because of a breakdown in ethics particularly in a recent press conference with the Secretary of State. Mr. Dulles had conferred last week with the President at Newport, Rhode Island, on the situation in the Formosa area and had issued a prepared statement. Mr. Dulles also had given, for diplomatic reasons, in confidence to the reporters some background information, with the understanding that what he said was not to be attributed to the Secretary of State.

Old Custom Is Ignored

Some reporter at the press conference felt free nevertheless to ignore the established custom that the confidences of public officials are never broken, and evidently informed former Secretary of State Dean Acheson about it. The latter — who head of the committee on foreign policy of the Democratic party's National Advisory Council — issued a statement last Saturday in which he publicly identified Secretary Dulles as the source of the information to the press. Yet Mr. Acheson must have known what the rules of the State Department have always been in relation to these informal conferences with the press.

The question of ethics came up sharply at the public session which Secretary of State Dulles had with newsmen on Tuesday of this week. Here is an extract from the official transcript of that conference as made public by the State Department:

Hints Rules Were Broken

"Q. Mr. Secretary, were you the high official at Newport the other day who interpreted the President's statement after it was released?

"Mr. Dulles: I had what was supposed to be, under the rules that were laid down when I had the meeting, a background conference there. I realize now that you cannot always have a 'background' conference with compliance with the rules.

"Q. So you were the official, sir?

"A. I was."

This was but a polite way of saying that some of the reporters who cover the news of the Chief Executive and the Secretary of State perhaps cannot be trusted, or that some one in their home offices violated a confidence in transmitting to Mr. Acheson the source of the news dispatches.

But even if this information had been imparted to the former Secretary of State by some newsman, why did this high official of the Truman administration feel that he could disregard the ethical position of the correspondents who received the information? He must have known it was one of the background conferences such as he himself held when he was conducting the foreign policy of the United States in many similar crises.

Editors' Demands Cited

An argument can be made that "background" conferences should never be held anyway and that everything should be on the record. But in delicate situations involving possible military action, the press for years has respected the confidences of government officials. Recently organizations of editors have set up special committees investigating "secrecy in government" and demanding, under the "right to know" principle, that more information be made public. Will they concern themselves with the responsibilities of the press?

It would seem that the press has obligations also and that the "right to know" doctrine does not include the right to break a confidence-agreement made with high officials. The candid and aboveboard way for any one who disagrees with that concept is not to accept confidences from high officials in the first place, if it is the intention surreptitiously to act as an informant for the politicians of the opposing political party.

Touch-Go Situation

The situation in the Far East is touch and go. Principles of transcendent importance are at stake. Yet the needling of the government here for information of a military nature with respect to American defense planning in the Far East goes on steadily. Both the Moscow and Peiping regimes, with their listening posts on radio broadcasts, are delighted with the co-operation they get nowadays through those American press dispatches which tell in detail, without authorization, what is being planned and what is likely to be done in a military operation by American forces.

Secretary Dulles has explained many times why it is necessary not to advise the enemy exactly what the United States will do in case of an attack on Quemoy. His reason is that it is hard to tell when a military move by Red China may be merely intended to capture that island and go no further, or whether it is part of an attack on Formosa itself, which the United States is committed by treaty to defend. It will be recalled that Formosa is the base from which McArthur's forces on the Philippines were bombed by the Japanese on the same day that Pearl Harbor was attacked. The Philippines—an integral part of the free world—are vulnerable to attack from Formosa. As Mr. Dulles says, the whole situation with respect to the offshore islands is interwoven with the problem of security of America's allies in the Far East.

BOOK REVIEW

To further increase interest in the Kingston Library the following review by Mrs. G. Cramer Dodge is published.

A SUMMER PLACE
By Sloan Wilson
276 pp

Life in a restricted summer colony seems to bring out the best and the worst in people, and so it was with the small group of wealthy families who divided up Pine Island, off the coast of Maine, among themselves, enjoyed it for a few weeks each summer and left its bitter winters to a caretaker and his vicious dog.

Into this summer paradise one year came beautiful 16-year-old Sylvia Raymond with her parents as guests of the aristocratic Boston Hunter family. Her outstanding beauty of face and figure was a disturbing factor to nearly everyone, especially to Ken Jorgensen, young Harvard scholarship student from Nebraska, who came to Pine Island as lifeguard and tutor to the Hunter boys. Both young people, being just outside the charmed social circle of the island, were thrown together. Ken fell deeply and truly in love with Sylvia. She, in turn led him on and spurned and teased him until, at a late party of heavy drinking followed by nude swimming on the beach the inevitable happened and Sylvia and Ken parted in anger.

Later Sylvia married Barton Hunter. Bart could be, and was, a charming, indulgent husband except that he drank far too much and seemed unable to hold a job for any length of time. Upon his father's death, Bart inherited what was left of his father's assets — sadly depleted by the depression. In good times and bad, Sylvia was a model wife and mother to their children, John and Carla. In 1953, Bart sold the Boston house, remodeled the Pine Island mansion into an inn and, with his family, retired to the island permanently. The summers were bearable and slightly profitable. The winters were horrible.

Ken prospered in his work in a research laboratory to the extent that he became a very wealthy man. He never was able to get Sylvia out of his mind. When he married he chose colorless, completely uninteresting Helen, mainly because she was so devoid of passion. Their marriage turned out as one might expect. Helen, under complete domination of her narrow-minded, ambitious mother, was a most unsatisfactory wife. Ken was home as little as possible, and then only for the companionship of his lovely little daughter, Molly, whom he adored.

For a summer treat Helen wanted, of all things, a yacht of their own. So Ken, by golly, chartered a yacht, complete with captain and crew and sailed majestically up to the rotting pier of Pine Island, where he had engaged rooms for his family at Bart Hunter's Inn for the month of August. A big surprise for Helen.

That set off a chain of events. After a brief interval, Ken and Sylvia renewed their interrupted love affair of long ago. They met secretly at night in the boat house, were observed by the light-sleeping caretaker who reported to Bart. Meantime a delicate little puppy-love affair starts between Molly and John.

There were nasty scenes preceding the divorces of both couples. Disillusionment and heartbreak, particularly for John and Molly. John scorns his mother and stays with his father until ulcers, coupled with heavy drinking sends Bart to the hospital, a very sick man.

After the divorces, these two lovely children are sent to boarding schools. Molly to Virginia; John to Massachusetts. John develops his talent as a pianist. They write frequently and sometimes meet secretly in New York between trains when en route to their homes on vacation. Their courtship is uneasy and uncertain.

Some time after Ken and Sylvia are married, they write asking Molly and John to be their guests. The meeting was an uneasy one for all. John greets his mother without warmth. Molly is shy and uncomfortable. Once they are alone they literally fling themselves into each others arms. Out of their despair is born a love which brooks no restraints.

Then Molly telephones to John from boarding school to say that she is pregnant. John's reaction is the last word in chivalry. With very little money he manages to get to Pine Island to appeal to his father. Bart's cynical refusal is understandable but it doesn't help. Then John breaks into the inn, packs a suitcase with valuables of his grandmother, pawns them, buys a car, gets Helen from her school and then these poor innocents try to get married. Of course no license can be obtained by these seventeen and eighteen-year-olds without birth certificates.

After that it is illuminating to see how the other three parents react to the situation.

No Trace Is Found Of Escaped Arsonist

BLAIRSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—State police said today they have found no trace of a convicted arsonist who escaped from Torrance State Hospital near here last week.

Police in Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey have been alerted to be on the lookout for 20-year-old Robert J. Conkling of Staten Island, N. Y.

Conkling pleaded guilty to charges of setting a fire that destroyed Giles Hall on the campus of St. Francis College of Loretto, Pa., where he was an economics major.

After being given a three to ten year prison term, Conkling was sent to Torrance last June 30 for observation.

Minister to Change Name for $75,000

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — For a legacy of around $75,000, the Rev. Glenn Alty of suburban Snyder plans to change his name.

The 39-year-old Methodist minister was named in the will of an uncle who died last March in Omaha, Neb. The uncle, Norris P. Crafts, stipulated, however, that his nephew must take the name of Crafts to qualify for the inheritance.

The Rev. Mr. Alty announced his decision Wednesday through a pastoral letter sent to the congregation of his church, Christ Methodist.

"If the court grants my petition, my name will be the Rev. Glenn Alty Crafts," he wrote.

He is the father of four sons and a daughter.

The minister said the legacy would be "substantially less" that $75,000 after taxes and fees had been paid but "it is still large enough that we did not feel in clear conscience that we could refuse to consider the matter."

He has been pastor of Christ Methodist church for nearly eight years.

Summer Employment Up

NEW YORK (AP)—Summertime employment of stage actors reached a record high throughout the country in July, Actors Equity reports. The professional union said 4,200 of its 8,200 members were at work, compared with 3,500 during last summer's peak month.

The Fount

NOTRE DAME, Ind. (AP)—The majority of America's Roman Catholic seminarians come from middle class families, are graduates of home-town high schools before entering seminary, and have at least one relative in the priesthood, a study by the Rev. Joseph H. Fichter, a sociology professor shows.

Part of Maine's Big Potato Crop Goes Into Doughnuts

FLUFFY, tempting doughnuts, with Katahdin potatoes a star ingredient, are a favorite with folks in the Pine Tree state.

By GAYNOR MADDOX,
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Over 20,000 people are in some way dependent on Maine's potato crop for a living. At retail level, it's worth 180 million dollars.

Every year, in Aroostock County in the most northern part of the state, while little white blossoms sprinkle thousands and thousands of acres of green potato fields, the growers hold their famous Blossom Festival at Presque Isle. There are potato barrell rolling contests, selection of a Potato Blossom Queen (usually a 4-H Club girl), a parade with bands and floats and marching Cub Scouts, and finally a vast chicken barbecue. A lusty show—just one of the many reasons we love the state.

E. Perrin Edmunds, president of both the Maine Potato Commission and National Potato Council, active in expanding the market and in developing new methods of growing potatoes, is in private life a doughnut lover. He insists his wife's Katahdin potato doughnuts are the best any man, in or outside Maine, ever ate. "Like to eat a stack of her doughnuts with scalding coffee and rich country cream," he said.

Out of the almost 52,000 carload lots of potatoes shipped during the 1957-58 season, Mrs. Edmunds saved enough to keep her husband doughnut happy until the new crop, now being harvested, arrives.

Mrs. Edmund's Potato Doughnuts (Yield: 1½ to 2 dozen).

One cup hot mashed potatoes, 2 tablespoons butter, melted; 1½ cups water, 1 cup milk, 3 eggs, beaten; ½ teaspoon pure vanilla extract, 4 cups flour, 6 teaspoons baking powder, 2 tablespoons nutmeg, ½ teaspoon salt, powdered sugar.

Combine first 6 ingredients. Sift together flour, baking powder, nutmeg and salt. Add to potato mixture. Add vanilla and chill for two hours. Pat on floured board. Cut with doughnut cutter and fry in hot deep fat (375 degrees F.) until golden. Drain on paper towels, sprinkle with powdered sugar and serve either hot or cold.

Bridge Silent Partners Lose

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

North's decision to stand for the two-spade double was a dangerous one. His partner had clearly shown six clubs and four spades and three clubs would have been a safer contract.

West opened the king of hearts and continued the suit despite the fact that his partner dropped the deuce. South trumped low and played two high trumps.

Next came the club suit. West followed to the first three leads and trumped the fourth with the jack. Now there was no way to keep declarer from making both his and dummy's last trump and the doubled contract was made.

East was bitter about the whole matter. He pointed out that a diamond shift would have beaten the hand and that he had played the deuce of hearts at trick one.

East was right in his analysis of the defense, but East had made the major mistake of the hand.

East and West have a cinch four hearts and should have reached it. Once West bid two hearts East should have bid either three or four hearts. Had he bid four they would have been right in game. Had he bid three West would probably have gone on.

Reasons for Absence

POINT OF THE MOUNTAIN, Utah, (AP) — Three Utah State Prison inmates failed to appear Wednesday for their parole hearings before the Utah State Pardon Board. The reason: Two are escapees and the third is being held on a murder charge. The board continued the hearings to an indefinite date.

Through Six Countries

Bees in Chimney

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — Mrs. Charles O. Brady built the first fire of the season in the fireplace Wednesday. The heat melted honey from a beehive in the chimney. It dripped down and a swarm of angry bees followed. Firemen plugged the chimney to keep the bees out of the house but no one quite knew how to get them out of the chimney.

Hollywood News, Views

By JAMES BACON
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Frank Sinatra is so busy with movie-making that he won't have time to collect a million dollars from TV this season.

"I'll be busy making movies for a year solid," he says. "And I can only hit one pitch at a time."

TV Pact Extended

He said his ABC-TV contract, which calls for three million dollars in three years, will be extended a year.

Frank recently returned from the Madison, Ind., location of "Some Came Running." Despite published reports to the contrary, Frank says, he enjoyed Madison.

"It's a nice town with nice people," he said.

And Don Wallis, business manager of the Madison Courier, says the feeling was mutual among the townspeople.

Beef Over Hamburgers

"There were a few gripes," Wallis said, "but 99 per cent of the people enjoyed the stay of the movie company."

Frank admitted there was a verbal beef with a hotel clerk over some hamburgers.

"Leo Durocher, my guest, ordered the hamburgers but all he got was insults from the clerk," Frank said. "I blew my top a little—who wouldn't?—but I never laid a glove on the guy."

If there's any doubt that Sinatra is the most in-demand actor in town, look at this schedule. After a few more weeks on "Some Came Running," Frank's Hobart Productions goes to Florida to make "All My Tomorrows," the movie version of the Broadway hit "A Hole in the Head."

Busy Year Ahead

It will be followed—if Frank can work it in—by his annual four-week stint at the Sands Hotel in Las Vegas, where Sinatra is part owner.

... may next make a movie of the Broadway musical "Can Can" and then "Paris by Night," with Brigitte Bardot. The latter will be shot next summer in Paris.

If that isn't enough, Sinatra also put in a sizable bid for "The Music Man," the current Broadway smash.

Frank believes that by the 1959-60 season he'll be able to do TV again.

Wagner Future Shifts To Cloudy, Uncertain

By CHARLES DUMAS

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — New York's Mayor Robert F. Wagner, once the Democrats' young man of the future, now finds his future cloudy and uncertain.

His painful decision against running for the U. S. Senate this year has brought him to a critical crossroads.

Three Paths to Take

There are three paths he can take.

One still leads to the Senate, his personal goal, but he cannot travel this until 1962.

Another could take him to the governor's mansion, four years from now, and, eventually, perhaps, to Washington.

The third road is a dead end.

Political observers here are sharply divided over which road Wagner must journey. Some maintain that his future is as bright as ever. Others argue that, at the politically youthful age of 48, opportunity already has passed him by.

Strange Case Indeed

The Wagner case is a strange one indeed.

Two years ago, after he ran for the Senate and lost to Republican Jacob K. Javits, Wagner looked like a cinch for renomination in 1958.

He made a tremendous showing even in defeat. Bucking the Eisenhower tide, Wagner ran a half million votes ahead of his party's presidential candidate, Adlai Stevenson, in his first try for statewide office.

His ambition to follow his father, Robert F. Wagner Sr., into the U. S. Senate was well known. This was his personal goal and he meant to achieve it.

Faced No Challenge

He had strong backing from party leaders, including Gov. Averell Harriman and the powerful leader of Tammany Hall, Carmine DeSapio. No one in the party seemed inclined to challenge his right to a second try.

Then, last fall, Wagner made what he came to regard as a tragic mistake.

Seeking re-election as mayor, he promised without reservation that he would serve out his full, four-year term if returned to office. He said it again and again, many ways.

Real Vote-Getter

He was re-elected by a startling 900,000-vote plurality. His admirers, looking ahead to 1958, beamed —"what a vote-getter."

But, as the time neared to make his public decision on the Senate, Wagner's promise came back to haunt him. Civic interests in the city challenged him to keep his promise or show himself a man not to be trusted.

Meanwhile, his administration was hit by a series of scandals. None touched him personally, but nevertheless, it seemed a good time to move on.

At the Democratic state convention in Buffalo last month, Harriman and DeSapio could not agree on any Senate candidate other than Wagner. They urged him to run.

Torn between ambition and his desire to prove himself a man of good faith, Wagner decided in frustration and grief that he could not run. He knew that his career hung somehow on that decision

What About Governor

Where does he go from here?

Regardless of whether Harriman wins or loses in his bid for a second term, Wagner could very well be the next candidate for governor. Harriman probably would not be renominated if he loses in November. Even if he wins, Harriman is not considered likely to seek a third term.

Wagner will have to wait until 1962 anyway for another shot at the Senate, when Javits' term expires. Of course, he then would have the handicap of trying to unseat an incumbent who has beaten him before.

In either event, Wagner must keep up his prestige and maintain his place in the public eye. This could mean running again for mayor, in 1961, or, in the event the Democrats regain the White House in 1960, appointment to some high federal post.

Meanwhile, he will have to keep his mayoral administration on even keel. Any fresh scandal could be disastrous.

The giant question mark hanging over Wagner's future will make him an object of intense interest for many months to come.

Determined Recruiters

CENTRAL CITY, Ky. (AP) —The U. S. Marines made a special effort to get Stephen Elsinger into the corps. He passed the written examination but a physical checkup showed the 18-year-old had a serious lung disorder. He went sent home with advice that an operation was necessary. The operation was arranged but Elsinger needed five pints of blood. Marine recruiters at Louisville, 200 miles away, soon had the situation well in hand. Five donated a pint each. Elsinger will be sworn in soon.

Area Methodist Youth Conference Set at St. James

REV. INMAN TOWNSLEY

Kingston Area Methodist churches will hold a conference for youth on the subject "Christian Careers," Saturday at St. James Methodist Church, Pearl and Fair Streets, starting at 10 a. m. Among church leaders to participate will be the Rev. Inman U. Townsley, Methodist missionary from Wembo Nyama, Belgian Congo, who will present the program of world missions.

For 20 years the Rev. Mr. Townsley has served in Africa as a teacher among the natives and is an accomplished linguist.

Speaking of the African program, the Rev. Mr. Townsley says, "there are great opportunities for Christian service in this society of people who are changing from a primitive culture, and are eager to take advantage of modern educational opportunities. Our Methodist work is almost entirely among Otetela people, so there is great need for an effective rural program."

The preaching ministry will be presented by the Rev. W. Bernard Grossman, superintendent of the Kingston district. Mrs. Beatrice Boyce, president of Ulster County Practical Nurses Association, will speak of the qualifications of the nursing profession. The Rev. George P. Werner, pastor of Methodist Church, Saugerties, will outline the opportunities for teaching in schools and colleges and the preparation of director of Christian education.

Raymond C. Corey, minister of music at St. James, will present the field of church music. The Rev. Ralph E. Hughes, pastor of Trinity Methodist, Kingston, will present the many positions of administration in executive, secretarial, accounting, and liaison activities of church and church related agencies.

A program of class sessions is under the supervision of the Rev. Mr. Garnett M. Wilder of the Methodist Parish of Woodstock.

Space Parley Set For Upstate Area

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP)—Leaders in space technology will discuss problems of designing and building satellites at the Sagamore Ordnance Research Conference near Raquette Lake, N. Y. Sept. 16-19.

Approximately 85 persons, representing military agencies, private industry and educational institutions, will discuss the effects on materials of space vacuum, high energy radiation, heat absorption and radiation, meteorites and cosmic dust.

The conference, first of its type, will be sponsored jointly by Syracuse University and Army Ordnance. It will be held at the Sagamore Conference Center.

Indict State GI In Nurse Slaying

BAY MINETTE, Ala. (AP)—Army Private Henry Queor Jr. of Winthrop, N. Y., has been indicted on a charge of first-degree murder in the slaying of a practical nurse.

A county grand jury returned the indictment Wednesday. Queor, 25, has been held without bond and will face trial during the Circuit Court term that begins Sept. 22.

Sheriff Taylor Wilkins has said Queor signed a statement admitting he killed Mrs. Pauline Penny, 40, of Norfolk, Va.

Queor was quoted as saying Mrs. Penny gave him a ride after his car had broken down near Chiefland, Fla. Queor supposedly beat her after she hit him with a whiskey bottle during an argument.

Mrs. Penny's battered body was found March 8 in a roadside park at Seminole, Ala. On March 19, FBI agents arrested Queor at the Aberdeen, Md., proving ground, where he was stationed.

Winthrop is in St. Lawrence County.

Socialists in Another Try for N. Y. Ballot

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The Socialist Labor Party is making another try for a place on the New York State election ballot.

The secretary of state's office said Wednesday the party filed nominating petitions for its slate of candidates just before the deadline Tuesday.

A second left-wing political group, the Independent Socialist Party, also is seeking to get on the ballot.

The Socialist Labor Party said its petitions bore more than 16,000 signatures. State law requires at least 12,000 signatures, with a maximum of 50 from each county in the state.

The party tried for a place on the ballot in 1956. But the validity of its petitions was challenged and Secretary of State Carmine G. DeSapio ruled the party out.

He had attended all the discussions. There was no indication he had been ill.

Jackson had been warden at the state prison at Dannemora for 15 years. He had been a member of the prison staff for 30 years.

Jackson was born in Whitesboro, near Utica, and attended New Hartford High School and Assumption Academy. He had worked for 11 years in the Utica and the Mohawk Cotton Mills in Utica before going to Dannemora in 1928.

His widow, the former Mary Fletcher of Utica, survives.

Early Decision On Schools Vital, Vines Tells Lions

Consolidation — the brightest star on the educational horizon today—would produce one school district and a better educational program for Kingston and surrounding areas, John Vines, president of the Chambers School Board of Education, told the Lions Club at its Tuesday luncheon meeting at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

He said you can block from view the brightest star in the sky if you put a penny close enough to your eye. Ignorance of the facts, or failure to recognize them, can result in a clouding of consolidation issues, he stated.

Vital to Planning

This pressing problem must be resolved at an early date so that Kingston and the rural areas can plan properly for the education of their children, he told the club.

Additional state aid available under consolidation would contribute to the improvement of facilities, equipment and courses.

Expansion of the curriculum in a consolidated school system would increase the opportunity for students to obtain scholarships and could thus be an important factor in the establishment of a community college in Kingston, he said.

He said that economies could be affected in the quantity purchase of school supplies and the better utilization of bus transportation, now contracted separately by each school district.

He reasoned that since the population of the rural areas comes to Kingston for shopping, worship, professional and other services, that it should also send its children here for their education.

We must clear away the clouds and make the decisions; learn the truth or face the consequences, he concluded.

Wallkill Youth's Case Put Over To Friday Date

Local police yesterday caught up with a young man from Wallkill, who allegedly sped away Aug. 4 after a whirl of traffic violations.

Donald R. Brenner, 21, of Plains Road, Wallkill, was arrested last night on a warrant executed by Officer Albert Hutton, and was booked on two counts of passing red lights, one of speeding, and a stop-sign charge.

Another charge was added today, police said, when it was found that he had no license in his possession. A check was being made to determine if he had obtained one.

Brenner, who allegedly went on the wild ride in the Pearl, Green, Fair, Main and St. James Street area, Aug 4, was spotted in town last night by Officer Hutton while he was off duty.

City Judge Aaron E. Klein today put the case over to Friday.

Pays $35 Fine

Theodore Hinckley, who was arrested after allegedly creating a disturbance at 81 Hasbrouck Avenue, where he had been a boarder, was fined $35. He was booked on charges of disorderly conduct and public intoxication. The sentence on the former was $25 or 25 days in jail and he was given the choice of paying $10 or spending 10 days in jail on the other. The fines were paid.

The arrest for disorderly conduct was on complaint of Mrs. Cornelius Leonard, of 81 Hasbrouck Avenue, who reported that Hinckley had entered the house, created a disturbance, and her husband put him out.

Going to Jury

The case of Joseph Addison Freer, 63, of 42 Henry Street, charged with driving while intoxicated and leaving the scene of an accident is due to go to the grand jury as the result of a motion made by John E. Gotelli of the district attorney's office.

Gotelli moved for adjournment of the case so that it could be presented to the grand jury.

Freer was arrested several weeks ago, police said, after the car he was driving allegedly struck a parked car on Delaware Avenue.

Contractors Told

Building Contractors were also chartered by the B.I.E.

"All of those organizations affiliated with the B.I.E. know how much hard work, patience and diplomacy is necessary before a group like your own can come into existence," he said. "I, personally, am pleased to see the development of the Ulster County group which was merely an idea when I left Ulster County two years ago. The foresight which made your group possible will be rewarded over the years, I am sure."

Discusses Bargaining

Richards discussed with the contractors their position in the building and construction world and spoke of the position of labor organizations, with which the contractors must deal in bargaining. He said "these groups are no longer local in nature, but are organized on a regional or district basis." He said groups upstate are "entirely cognizant of your recent efforts to cope with this type of organization and are conscious of your successes along these lines."

"They are also aware of the tremendous amount of work ahead of all of us in meeting the challenge of concentration of bargaining power. There are some among us who believe that the logical extension of district council bargaining units is the amalgamation of district councils into a single state-wide bargaining committee (possibly excluding New York City and environs) directed strategically from International Union headquarters," Richards said. He cited the recent Ironworkers dispute in the Albany-Niagara Falls area. Richards said lack of preparation on the part of contractors to meet this type of bargaining power could produce bad results.

Stresses Organization Benefits

Referring to the recent Ironworkers strike and its outcome, Richards said, "Now many of you will ask what was gained from an eight-week strike. Well, we all know that no one gains from a strike—at least economically. But upstate, contractors have become aware of the extreme necessity of organizing on a more formal basis to meet the new trends, area-wide bargaining, district council bargaining, or what have you. In the southwestern part of the State, local associations are talking in terms of merger. Close to your own organization is a group of contractors associations who are beyond the discussion stage. It remains only to formalize the arrangement by which they will jointly handle their labor relations problems. The concept of this; Link local associations to form regional conferences or labor relations committees, or if you will, district councils of contractors associations, in order to present the union's organizations with an exact opposite number, equal in bargaining strength and capability."

"It is time now for the contractor to become sophisticated in his handling of collective bargaining—time to organize—time to become confident in his personal relations as he is in his ability to construct any structure any time any place under any conditions."

Mrs. Brinkman Is Committed to State Hospital

Mrs. Helen Mae Brinkman, 24, of Silver Hollow, Town of Shandaken, who stands charged with manslaughter for the death of her 21-month-old daughter, Linda, last January, was today committed to the Matteawan State Hospital. She will be held there until such time as she is, in the opinion of doctors, mentally competent to stand trial under the manslaughter indictment.

A jury had been selected to try the manslaughter, first degree, charge. On motion of Defense Counsel Sherwood E. Davis trial was postponed and Mrs. Brinkman was examined by physicians as to her mental status.

Wednesday at the chambers of County Judge Louis G. Bruhn medical testimony was offered on behalf of defendant designed to show that she suffered from epileptic fits, was incompetent to realize the nature of the crime and was at this time incapable of making a defense to the charge. Judge Bruhn reserved decision until the opening of court today when he announced that Mrs. Brinkman according to the medical testimony was not capable of making a defense and he committed her to the state hospital for treatment.

It is charged Mrs. Brinkman in a fit of anger swung the 21 months old child by the heels causing the child's head to strike a wall inflicting injuries. Mrs. Brinkman later summoned Dr. Charles Quinn of Phoenicia who found the child in a serious condition. Taken to the hospital the child later died of what an autopsy disclosed to be severe head injuries.

Mrs. Brinkman was arrested and charged with the death. She is separated from her husband and has three other children.

Will Ask Public Be Informed of Bingo Licencees

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The chairman of the State Lottery Commission says he will ask the full commission to make public its records on bingo operations.

Chairman Richards W. Hannah said Wednesday he would recommend the action, after newspaper criticism that the newly formed commission had declined to reveal the names of persons granted or refused licenses to conduct bingo.

The commission meets here Sept. 17. "I am wholly confident," Hannah said, that the commission will accept his recommendation.

Hannah's statement was released through the office of Gov. Harriman.

New rules and regulations governing bingo now are being mailed to all municipalities that have approved bingo, Hannah said. The municipalities will have to conform to rules by Oct. 15.

Then, Hannah said, the commission will be notified of the names of all persons granted or refused licenses and will receive reports of receipts and profits.

This information should be made public, Hannah added.

New York voters approved a constituional amendment last fall that allows bingo to be conducted, on a local-option basis, by certain non-profit groups.

The Lottery Commission was set up to supervise operation of the games.

SAC Is Checking Men For Excess Weight

PLATTSBURGH, N. Y. (AP)—SAC no longer will be only Strategic Air Command. To bulky airmen, it will mean stay away from calories.

SAC is promoting SAC throughout its world-wide command.

At Plattsburgh Air Force Base, about 5,000 airmen are being checked for excess weight. Men over 45 are exempt.

Those found overweight will have to reduce, at the rate of four pounds a month. If they don't, they will be turned over to the base surgeon for "positive correction." That hasn't been spelled out as yet.

Lt. Col. Robert A. Clendenin, commander of the 820th operations squadron, said Wednesday the SAC program was two-fold. "One aim is control of overweightness. The other is to insure general physical fitness among personnel."

Clendenin's outfit was the first checked here. About 10 per cent of the men were overweight. "I was very discouraged," he said.

Mother Sentenced In Stabbing Death

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — A 20-year-old mother of two, convicted of stabbing a man to death, must serve from 1½ to 5 years in the women's prison at Bedford Hills.

Lillian L. Hollins was sentenced by Judge Martin Schenck of Albany County Court Wednesday after he permitted her to plead guilty to a charge of second-degree manslaughter.

She was convicted of stabbing Arthur Willingham, 26, with a butcher knife last June 26. Police said she had been living with Willingham.

Peter Pryor, defense counsel, said she stabbed Willingham after he beat her in their Albany home. Pryor asked that the charge be reduced from first-degree manslaughter.

WORLD-WIDE SENTINEL SYSTEM—Some 5,400 atomic policemen may be stationed at 180 posts scattered around the world if the plan coming out of the East-West scientific meeting in Geneva is adopted by the nuclear powers. The scientists are discussing the feasibility of detecting atomic explosions. They report that such a monitoring system, while not entirely foolproof, would discourage any country from attempting to violate an international nuclear test ban. The posts, on land and sea, would be located from about 600 to 2,000 miles apart. Newsmap, above, shows how many are suggested for each continent. Stations would be closest together in earthquake zones in order to distinguish small, underground blasts from the 10,000 earthquake tremors recorded each year. Tentatively, the United States and Alaska would get 10 or 11 stations, Russia 16 or 17, Red China eight and India two or three.

Far East Crisis Is Subject

President's Talk Tonight May Clear Some Confusion

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's decision to broadcast to the nation tonight on the Far East crisis comes after Secretary of State Dulles' admission the public has not been adequately informed on the situation.

Many people have wondered why this country gives the appearance of readiness to fight Red China if it attacks the small Quemoy and Matsu islands, held by Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist Chinese just a few miles off the China coast.

Dulles Causes Some

The basic question is and has been: Are they worth fighting for?

But more than lack of information on this critical question is involved. There has been confusion.

Dulles himself caused some of it at Newport, R.I., last week by speaking to reporters as secretary of state one minute and the next as a "high official" who sounded tougher than Dulles when he was speaking as secretary.

This left the public wondering who was sounding tougher than Dulles and Eisenhower on a question which might involve this country in war.

Newsmen were bound by ground rules not to identify the "high official" as Dulles, but the secretary since has agreed to let himself be named as the source.

Newsmen Were Tougher

In all fairness — this writer believes — some newsmen who listened to the "high official" must bear responsibility for part of the confusion. They wrote a much tougher interpretation into his words than the words themselves expressed.

This is the background leading up to tonight's talk by Eisenhower:

Last Thursday Dulles visited the President at his Newport vacation headquarters, then he came out and, under his own identity, read to newsmen a 900-word statement approved by Eisenhower.

This was the official American position on this country's relation to Quemoy and Matsu and what the United States would do if they were attacked. It actually added little or nothing to what was already known.

Deliberatly Vague

It was deliberately vague. Simply, it said Eisenhower hadn't yet decided what to do. Although this left the American public guessing, it also left the Chinese Communists guessing.

But Dulles, having finished this formal statement, then conducted what is known as a background conference. This means that newsmen understand they are not to identify by name the government official who talks to them.

Standing behind this screen of anonymity, Dulles went a little further than what he had just read.

He was asked if the vague but official statement meant the United States would fight in defense of Quemoy and Matsu if Chiang's men couldn't hold them. Dulles, in his role as a "high official," said: "That is the indication of this thing."

He quickly added that he didn't want to go beyond the official statement. Some newsmen interpreted his words as saying the administration had made up its mind to defend the islands although the official statement said Eisenhower hadn't made up his mind.

Confident of Sentiment

During this give-and-take Dulles was asked if he didn't think many people in this country might oppose going to war with Red China over the islands. The "high official" said: "I believe the sentiment of the country, when it is adequately informed," would be overwhelmingly behind any decision to defend Quemoy and Matsu.

Then began the public puzzlement over the identity of the "high official" doing this big talking.

Dulles let himself be named after Dean Acheson, former secretary of state flatly said Dulles himself had been the "high official."

At his Tuesday news conference, Dulles was repeatedly asked why the public had not been kept better informed on administration thinking about Quemoy and Matsu. Dulles said in brief: Some things are so delicate — in final decisions of great importance — that the President and his advisers can't share them with the general public.

Will Hear Silver Firm On Illegal Allowances

WASHINGTON (AP) — Oneida Ltd. of Sherrill, N. Y., faces a hearing next month on a federal charge of allegedly paying illegal advertising allowances to favored customers.

The Federal Trade Commission charged Wednesday that the big silverware firm had given certain, favored customers allowances for radio and television advertising that were not available to all competing retailers.

Citing an example, the FTC said Associated Barr Stores Inc. of Philadelphia was granted $33,000 more from Oneida in the years 1954-56 than it would have received if treated equally with other firms.

Man Won't File Complaint Over Party Line Users

FRANKLIN LAKES, N. J. (AP) —After a discussion with his family minister, Robert W. Brown says he won't file a complaint against the party line users who allegedly prevented him from telephoning for help for his dying baby.

The 20-year-old father has maintained he was unable to secure use of his telephone Saturday morning after his son, stricken with a heart ailment, turned blue.

After a nine-mile automobile ride to Paterson General Hospital, which was blocked for a time by a fire in Paterson, the 5-month-old baby, Robert Jr., was pronounced dead on arrival. He died in his mother's arms.

But Wednesday night, Brown said he decided that no good would come of signing a complaint.

He said he hoped those involved would let their own conscience and heart be their guide in future circumstances. He added he hoped it would be a lesson to others who might be in a similar situation.

State law provides a maximum penalty of a year in jail and a thousand dollar fine for persons not yielding a party line for an emergency.

According to estimates, 1958 will record the smallest number of marriages in the United States in two decades.

Court May Rule This Weekend on School Problem

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the second time in two weeks, the Supreme Court convened in extraordinary session today for argument on the great issue racking much of the south—the removal of racial barriers in public schools.

Term Opens Monday

The question was how fast the southern states must move in throwing over generations - long customs of school segregation to comply with the court's 1954 decision that separation of White and Negro school children is unconstitutional.

It is possible the court may rule by the weekend. The practical situation argues for an early decision. For the specific case before the court is that of Central High School in Little Rock, Ark., which is to open its fall term Monday.

A packed court room lay before the black-robed justices. More than half of those in the spectator places were Negroes.

The marble court room has seats for 177 general spectators. In addition, about 30 to 40 standees are permitted.

Wait All Night

The choice spectator seats fell to the first comers among 184 people who were in line when the court room doors were opened at 9 a.m.—three hours before the hour for the justices to take the bench.

Among the 184 were four who had waited all night. And, at 3 a.m., there were 17 in line.

The precise legal issue is a narrow one—whether a plan of integration, once in operation, may lawfully be suspended because of popular opposition to it. But the impact of the court's ruling is certain to be far reaching.

Specifically, the court will determine whether Little Rock's Central High School must readmit Negro students, whose attendance there last year brought on violence and the subsequent use of troops.

But the decision, whatever it is, will throw out guidelines to federal district judges grappling elsewhere with the vexing problem of applying the high court's 1955 command for "all deliberate speed" in integrating schools.

Any delay for Little Rock could mean more time for other areas of the Southland in their bitter stand against having Negroes and whites go to school together.

But a ruling that Little Rock is not entitled to suspend its integration program until January 1961 would be the signal for district judges in other areas to take a firmer stand on integration orders. Several judges have withheld final orders until the court rules.

State Letter . . .

could be presented at a regular Town Board meeting.

The house numbering plan of Port Ewen Businessmen's Association as outlined by a committee headed by John Spinnenweber was adopted by the board.

Supervisor Mabie appointed a committee including Councilmen Potter, Rosenthal, and Justice of the Peace Allen Dargie to put the plan into operation.

Kenneth Bonville speaking for the park commissioners gave a preliminary report on the proposed installation of a 100 by 200 foot ice skating rink in Ross Park.

Basil H. Potter, another park commissioner outlined tentative plans for a winter recreation program in the Port Ewen School.

Authorizes Sign

The board authorized the installation of "Slow, Children at Play," signs on Doris Street, Port Ewen in accordance with a request by Mrs. Richard Adams, a resident on that street.

Town Highway Superintendent Paul Mercier was directed to determine the costs and number of town boundary signs required to be placed at each entrance to the township.

A special meeting of the Town Board was scheduled for Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the Town Hall to take action on bids for the purchase of a pick-up truck, dump truck and spreader.

A preliminary hearing on the proposed 1959 town budget will be held at the next regular meeting of the board, Wednesday, Oct. 8 at 8 p. m. in the Town Hall.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—A hesitant stock market moved a bit to the upside in fairly active trading early this afternoon.

Drugs did well and there were limited gains by a number of selected issues.

Some steels, motors and oils moved ahead. Rails, while narrowly higher, still lagged behind the industrials.

Key stocks went ahead from fractions to a point or so. Scattered losses kept the average from making much of a gain.

The opening was active and prices were higher but they lapsed into irregularity as turnover slowed. In mid-morning the market firmed and prices improved with dealings more active.

Wall Street analysts saw the market as continuing a consolidation phase after Tuesday's vigorous approach toward the record highs.

Chrysler was up about a point. American Cyanamid rose more than a point. Schering and Pfizer rose about a point each and Merck well over a point.

U.S. Steel was ahead about a point and Jones & Laughlin more than that.

Zenith added three points or more to Wednesday's rise.

U.S. government bonds edged higher.

Police Force Is

arrest of patrolmen in July, 1957 on burglary charges.

The rules, presented on 16 typewritten pages of legal size paper will be compiled in book form with space left at the back for changes and additions, Mayor Edwin F. Radel said today.

Conduct of police business, duties of men of all rank, and general procedure were dealt with in the document.

Last night's meeting was nearly as long as that of Monday. It started at 7 p. m. and lasted until nearly midnight. All board members attended.

Two Are Specials

Two of the five men appointed have been serving as special officers. They are Ira Hadsel, Jr., 25, of 58 Smith Avenue, who has been a special for about three years, and Wilmont F. Hall, 37, of 89 Green Street, who served as special since last Jan. 1.

Both are veterans, Hall having served in the U. S. Army in World War 2 and the Korean War. Hadsel served in the Army in 1953 and 1954. Hall is a former employe of the Kingston Lumber Co., and Hadsel formerly worked for Sickler's Delivery Service. Both are married.

Others Named

The others named were Weston Hoffay, 37, of 363 South Wall Street, brother of Lt. Grover S. Hoffay, who has served the department many years; John A. Turck, 23, of 40 Hanratty Street, and Thomas F. Carpino, 25, of Colonial Gardens.

Hoffay, who served in the U. S. Navy during World War 2, has been employed as a machinist in Saugerties. Carpino, also a Navy veteran, has been employed as a meat cutter with the Maverick Choice Meat Supply, Route 28. Turck who served in the Army in 1955 to 1957, has been employed as a salesman with Montgomery Ward & Co. All are married.

Asks Deferment

Bernard C. Bouton, of 260 Smith Avenue., who was also slated for appointment, through his personal interview and by letter, Mayor Radel said, "has requested that we defer any action on his appointment until such time as he has cleared up several contract commitments at which time he will notify this board of his availability for appointment."

Mayor Radel, in a letter to the Municipal Civil Service Commission, noted that the men had been interviewed "for the purpose of making appointments on a probationary basis" and that appointments would be effective Sept. 21. He also said that salaries to be paid the men were "covered in the budget."

Eleven men appointed several weeks ago have been on duty for some time. Four other appointments are due to bring the department to a full strength of 60 men. Several of the men previously appointed had also served as special patrolmen.

Cancer Crusade

program in nearly 150 of the nation's medical and research institutions, with 1,200 scientists applying themselves to the investigation of cancer's causes, cures and preventives.

It has been said that cancer research has become the greatest single scientific effort in the country outside that in nuclear energy. Included is work with viruses, chemicals, immunity — even with the very nature of life itself.

The Cancer Crusade in Ulster County was characterized by volunteer participation by an estimated 400 persons, each of whom devoted time, talent and effort without thought of recognition or compensations beyond the personal satisfactions derived from dedication to the welfare of others. Chairman Kilcoyne wishes to express his sincere appreciation to all those who so willingly and successfully helped put the 1958 Ulster County Cancer Crusade across.

Crusaders Praised

Stevenson lauded the work of these Crusaders saying that seldom does man attain such heights.

Prominent in the success of the Crusade here were: Richard W. Griggs, co-chairman; Mrs. John Schussler, city chairman; James J. Rua, treasurer; Joseph W. Robertson, industrial chairman; Harrison W. Cornish, advance gifts chairman; Richard Bertstrom, publicity chairman.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING...

by ROGER E. SPEAR
Investment Adviser and Analyst

ROGER E. SPEAR

Fundamentals the Same But Market Is Valuing Them on a Higher Basis

Q R., Pennsylvania, writes, "It is very hard for me to understand this market. It used to be said that a stock selling at ten times earnings was a good value. Try and find one now. I have money to invest. What would you advise me to do, scrap my old idea of values and plunge ahead, or wait for the market to come back to what I think is a reasonable level?"

A. When you say you find it hard to understand this market, you're in good company. It is impossible to appraise this market or most individual stocks on any basis that has existed heretofore. What we appear to be witnessing is not simply a stock level supported by inflationary fears. We are finding a sort of inflation in the market itself. Inflation in its simplest terms is the product of an over-supply of money and a shortage of goods. With sellers reluctant to part with their holdings, what we are seeing at present is a short supply of stocks and a tremendous amount of money pushing for investment.

The fundamentals that determine stock prices, namely earnings and dividends, are the same. Investors are simply placing a higher value on them than ever before under similar circumstances. Last year when steel earnings reached a peak, U. S. Steel sold at a high of 73½ or ten times 1957 earnings. At its recent record high of 76¼, Big Steel was selling for fifteen times its expected earnings in 1958. Investors are willing to pay these prices in the apparent conviction that sound stocks are the best vehicle to put their money in and that earnings will eventually catch up with prices. I wouldn't advise you to scrap your old sense of values. I do believe you will have to raise your sights somewhat. You are competing for stocks now with mutual funds, pension funds and other huge investment sources that have become potent in recent years.

A WELL-BALANCED LIST IS THE ANSWER

I wouldn't wait too long for the market to get back to what you consider a reasonable level. Certainly stock prices look high, but with the recession apparently over and the economy climbing, I do not expect more than a moderate reaction or two during the intermediate term. If I were you, I would divide my investment purchases into three groups: (1) cyclical, (2) growth, and (3) defensive. Put a moderate amount into such cyclicals as Republic Steel and Anaconda; another moderate amount into such growth issues as General Electric, National Lead, and Texas Co.; and an amount sufficient to balance your list into such defensive issues as National Dairy, Montana Power, and Corn Products. With such a list, any reaction that may be forthcoming should not affect your position too seriously.

READER ADVISED ON WESTERN UNION

Q. Miss L. writes from Kentucky, "I have held Western Union since 1955. My stock has shown me a loss until recently when it got back to what I paid for it. Should I sell and if so, what would you suggest as a replacement?"

A. Western Union is extremely sensitive to changes in the business cycle. Earnings were off sharply in the first half of 1958, barely covering dividend requirements. On the whole I like this issue as an income producer but believe that its growth outlook is distinctly limited. I expect to see a good comeback in earnings in the second half and believe that the present dividend will be maintained. The company is in a good cash position after divesting itself of its cable properties. Since the tone of your letter indicates that you're not happy with the stock, I suggest that you sell it and put the proceeds into an issue with better growth prospects and more stability. In this category, I like Safeway Stores, our second largest food chain. Safeway now pays dividends monthly at the rate of $1.20 a year. Your yield would be less (3.5% compared with 4.9%) but over the long term. I think you would fare much better.

(Send your investment questions to Mr. Roger E. Spear, c/o this paper.)

To Launch Barge At Island Dock Friday Afternoon

I. D. Associates, Inc., will launch a refuse handling barge for the City of New York Department of Sanitation on Friday. The launching is scheduled to take place at 1:30 p. m.

The barge designated DS 66 is the fourth barge of a five vessel contract the local shipyard has with the City of New York. The first three vessels of the contract were delivered earlier this year.

The barge to be launched will be completed in approximately one week and is scheduled for delivery to the City of New York on September 22. Delivery of the finished barges are made to the Department of Sanitation dock at the foot of Roosevelt Street, underneath the Brooklyn Bridge, Manhattan.

The DS 66 is a welded steel barge measuring 150 by 37 feet. The barge is designed to carry refuse and trash from various collection points in New York City to a land fill project at Fresh Kills, Staten Island where the trash and refuse is disposed of by a sanitary fill method. Each barge carrys approximately 200 truck loads of trash and refuse.

The launching is timed to coincide with the time of high tide at Rondout. The DS 66 is the 53rd steel hull vessel to be built at Island Dock. The last barge of the present five barge contract is now under construction and is scheduled for completion in October. The berth to be vacated by the launching of the DS66 will be replaced by the construction of a 120 foot steel coal barge to be built for the Sargent Line Corporation of New York.

Russell Is Acquitted Before Justice Myers

Robert Russell of Saugerties was acquitted of a charge of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated Wednesday night when he appeared before Justice of the Peace Glenford Myers of the Town of Saugerties.

Judge Myers dismissed the case due to insufficient evidence and failure to prove the charges, he said.

The charges came out of an incident on August 14 when the 1957 station wagon Russell was driving on the Thruway near Saugerties went out of control and became stuck in the soft shoulder. Trooper R. Brenzel of the Thruway Detail investigated.

Joseph Tarocca appeared for the district attorney's office, and attorney Joseph Hill of Kingston represented the defendant.

THREE IN HOSPITAL—Three persons were hospitalized shortly before noon Wednesday in a collision between a passenger car and a pickup truck on Route 28 about 700 feet east of the Binnewater Lake road. They are Oliver Bogart, 57, of Stone Ridge, and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hawkins of Oneonta. All three were reported in fair condition today at Benedictine Hospital. Bogart suffered lacerations of the left side of the scalp, concussion and a sprained neck, Hawkins, 22, scalp, chin and lip lacerations and a contusion of the chest, and Mrs. Hawkins, 21, concussion, severe laceration over the right eye and shock. Trooper Richard Ryan of the Kingsion state police said Bogart, operating a 1954 pickup truck owned by the New York State Department of Public Works, was proceeding west on Route 28 away from Kingston when he attempted to make a left turn. A 1955 sedan operated by Hawkins, also traveling west, and attempting to pass the truck, hit it in the left side. (Freeman photo)

Health Assn. Gets Committee Report

Approximately 50 persons representing the board of directors attended the fall meeting of the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 6.

The meeting was held in Palenville at the summer home of the president, Dr. Frederic W. Holcomb Sr. Reports of standing committees were given. Mrs. Vincent G. Connelly, representing the Heart Chapter, said the rheumatic fever control program was proving very successful. About 95 Ulster County children are now receiving free penicillin. During the summer months the drug was delivered by the Chapter through the family physician.

With the opening of school the nurse-teacher will cooperate with the Heart Chapter in administering the drug in school. This program has now extended to pre-school and students of Ulster County colleges whose physicians and parents request this help from the Heart Chapter. Diagnostic tests and consultation services are also available for county children and adults whose physicians request this free service for patients who are in need of it, the chairman reported.

Office Near Completion

Alfred D. Ronder, treasurer, and chairman of the committee working on the new Association's office quarters at 124 Green Street, said, "Work is progressing satisfactorily at present. It is planned to have the building renovated and ready for occupancy this fall."

Miss Hazel M. Steed, executive director, reported on the educational program and spoke of the Rehabilitation and Patient Service which are conducted at both the Ulster County TB Hospital and the Infirmary on Flatbush Avenue. Harry Sutton, commissioner of public welfare, and Dr. Herbert F. Schwartz, superintendent of the Tuberculosis Hospital, both reported on the work at their institutions and thanked the board of directors for the interest and help given the patients in these hospitals.

Dr. Edward F. Shea, chairman of the Ulster County Mental Health Board, said the Board has been fortunate in securing the services of Dr. Maurice H. Greenhill, who will be in charge of the Mental Health Center, which will open at the Tumor Clinic on Broadway in the near future.

Robert W. Osborn, executive secretary of the State Committee on TB and Public Health of the State Charities Aid Association, brought the board up to date on news and program development at their office in New York City. He stressed the value of research. He said many thousands of Christmas Seals and Heart funds in New York State are now going into research through grants to teaching and medical centers, in an effort to conquer both tuberculosis and heart disease. Mr. Osborn congratulated the Ulster County TB and Health Association for their contributions to these research investigations looking into the chest disease problem. "This Joint Fund for medical research," he said, "Is now being administered by a board of trustees appointed by the Committee on TB and Public Health of the State Charities Aid Association."

He encouraged the local Association to keep informed of the many developments in the health program by sending representatives from both the lay and medical members in the Ulster County Health Association to the State and National health conferences. Doctor Holcomb and Mrs. Connelly were praised for the many sacrifices they make in attending sessions of the State Executive Committees of the Tuberculosis and Heart Associations.

He discussed the policy and importance of independent fund raising for the Tuberculosis and Heart Associations and reported on the action of the American Medical Association convention, held recently in San Francisco, where it was voted to approve the independent programs for lay and professional education research and fund raising of the voluntary health organizations.

Miss Steed and Dudley W. Hargrave, Ulster County Commissioner of health, discussed the coming chest X-ray survey which starts in Kingston Sept. 30. The mobile unit provided by the State Department of Health will be set up in each of the thirteen wards. All adults will be given the privelege of having a free chest X-ray. The Ulster County TB and Health Association will organize the program. Volunteers will be asked to assist in many ways to help sell this important health program to Kingston city and area residents.

Robert S. Russell of Saugerties will again serve as chairman of the Christmas Seals Sale which opens November 14.

Dr. Holcomb, thanked the members for their always ready co-operation, he especially mentioned N. Jansen Fowler and former City Judge Raymond J. Mino for their help in taking care of the few legal problems arising with the purchase of the new TB quarters at 124 Green Street.

Following the meeting a picnic supper was served by Dr. and Mrs. Holcomb, who for the past six years have been hosts to the board of directors for their September meeting.

The girls were talking about the personal affairs of their friends.

Lil—You all know Mabel, don't you? Well, she's only twenty-four and she's already been divorced three times. And it's very odd, but her three husbands and her present boy-friend are all named William.

Nell—Is that a fact? She must be a regular Bill collector.

Traveler—I want the best room you have and I want it fixed up properly. You will be paid well.

Proprietor—Sure, sure. You needn't worry about a thing. I'll take care of everything.

The proprietor then called the housemaid over from her dusting and gave her implicit instructions.

Proprietor—Annie, I want you to fix up Number Five right away. Fix it up good. Change the bedsheets and everything.

Both men were very good sportsmen. They observed all the rules and never took unfair advantage of an unsuspecting rabbit. It was while they were hunting turkeys that something went wrong.

One hunter noticed that the other was taking careful aim at a bird walking along and pecking at grubs in a rotted tree trunk.

First—Hey, (hoarsely) you're not going to shoot that bird while it's walking, are you?

Second—Of course I'm not, (snorting indignantly, with both pride and feelings hurt)—I'll wait until it stops.

Let us regard this ancient tree. This redwood that has stood for ages and turned a thousand history pages. Calm and majestic, it was standing when young Columbus made his landing. Let us regard these steadfast mountains, these mighty rivers—God's own fountains. Then look within and cease to cower; as God's child, feel His peace and power. Cast off your fears, complaints, and grieving. And know the joy of true believing. Renew your faith in God's creation. And work and pray for our dear nation.—Karl Flaster.

Nothing was heard of the collector for three weeks, then he came to the office and said,

Manager — Sure, but why haven't you been in on Fridays for your pay?

New Collector (shouting)—What! Do I get a salary too?

Crop Output Will Surpass 1948 Record

WASHINGTON (AP) — Farmers are making a spectacular increase in crop production this year despite government restrictions and retirement of some land under a soil bank payment program.

In its September crop report late Wednesday, the Agriculture Department estimated this year's volume will be 9½ per cent above the record first set in 1948 and matched in 1956 and 1957.

This was nearly 3 per cent larger than the volume forecast in August.

Not since 1948 has the production increased that much in a single year. The big outturn will assure the nation of bountiful supplies of most products. In the case of some, it will add to the existing surpluses. In others it will create new surpluses. Officials said it should help lift farm income above last year's level.

Change Seating Space

NEW YORK (AP)—Four of Broadway's playhouses are getting additional seating space for the new theatrical season, and one is being reduced in size. More chairs for customers are being put in the Lunt-Fontanne, Coronet, Morosco and the Helen Hayes. The smallest addition is 26, the greatest 68. The Adelphi is being changed into a more intimate showplace with a new seating capacity of 1,072, compared with the previous 1,434.

Up to 30,000 quills have been counted on an individual porcupine.

Reports Claims Paid

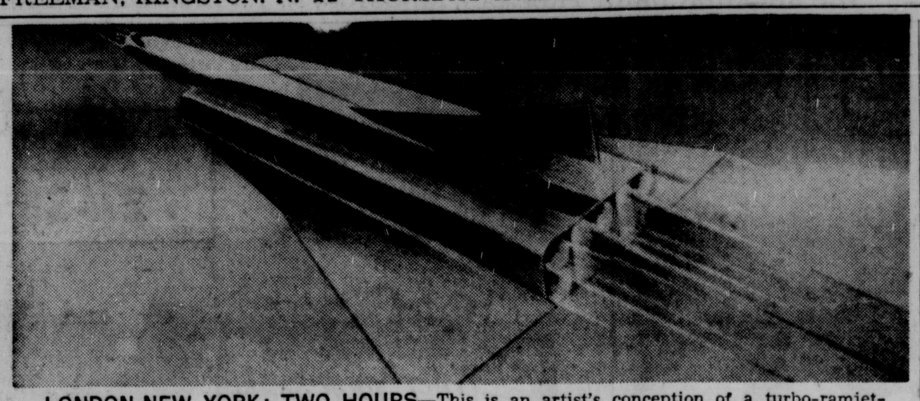
WASHINGTON (AP) — Claims totaling $208,519,802 had been paid up to June 30 under the Federal Employes' Group Life Insurance program.

Reporting this today, the Civil Service Commission said the program is the largest of its type in the world—with insurance now in force totaling 11 billion dollars.

The payments went to beneficiaries of deceased federal employes and retired workers.

The program is financed by deductions from the salaries of more than two million participating federal employes plus contributions from the employing agencies.

As of June 30, California led all other states with 4,479 claims paid. These totaled $22,376,190. New York was next with 3,813 claims paid, totaling $18,208,342.



LONDON-NEW YORK: TWO HOURS—This is an artist's conception of a turbo-ramjet-powered supersonic airliner which could travel 2,000 miles per hour and carry 150 passengers nonstop from London to New York in two hours. The airliner, being developed by Britain's Aero-Engines, Ltd., could use the same runways as today's jet planes. Eight minutes after takeoff, it would be at an altitude of 16 miles.

Wants Less Time

Paar Will Quit TV Show in '59

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Paar says he will quit his NBC-TV program next July, declaring that the network has refused his request for a shorter program.

Paar said Wednesday night: "If they will cut my one hour and 45 minutes to an hour and a quarter, I'll stay. But they say they won't and so I am going out."

No NBC spokesman was available for comment.

Paar, whose program runs from 11:15 p. m. to 1 a. m. EDT, five nights a week, Monday through Friday, said, "I'm doing more television than Gleason, Gobel, Allen and Berle combined. No, I don't want more money. I just want less time."

Paar has a five-year contract with NBC. Next July he will have completed two years of his contract.

Asked how he would break the contract, Paar replied:

"If necessary, I'll get a doctor's certificate. Lincoln freed the slaves, didn't he? I'm a citizen and I vote and pay taxes. What I'm doing is no good for me or my family. It's killing me."

He continued:

"There's no pique or temperament in this. If there were, why should I say I'll continue until next July? That's a long way off, but I'll stick it out somehow.

"I talked to the people at NBC again today and I don't see any hope of their cutting down my time."

Fall Is Good Time For Vacation in New York State

The current mellow days are being enjoyed by thousands of discriminating vacationists in New York State who have discovered that autumn is the best time for an Empire State holiday, the Travel Bureau of the State Deparemtnt of Commerce points out.

Contrary to a popular impression, all New York's summer resorts do not roll up their sidewalks the day after Lobor Day. There is, in fact, a full month or more left of the resort season before winter rings down the curtain.

Summer Continued

Usually this is referred to in trade circles as the "fall season" although some proprietors insist, with some reason, that for practical purposes it is really a continuation of the summer. In proof of their argument they point out that all the activities that make summer so much fun in New York State—swimming, fishing, boating, hiking, camping, goff, riding, and so on—continue undiminished.

The autumn enthusiasts insist that there are certain distinctive features about September and October that make it unique. There is a crispness, a tang, a clarity to these days often blessed with deep blue skies and the fleeciest of clouds.

The pace is definitely slower, the hurry of mid-summer is forgotten and this is a time for relaxation. The more attentive service at resorts, the somewhat wider choice of accommodations that is often available, reflect it. Most establishments offer reductions in rates during the fall season.

Fishing Revival

Fishing revives after the summer heat and this is a rewarding time for the angler who pursues bass and other open season game fish.

It is a good time for the sightseer. Most sightseeing establishments in New York State, including those appealing to children, will remain open through September and, in some cases, in October. Resort hotels, generally, will be open through September and in such areas as the Adirondacks and Catskills, well into October. Most motels remain open through the fall season.

The river valleys, the orchard country along the Hudson, Lake Champlain and Lake Ontario, the vineyards of the Finger Lakes and Allegany County attain their richest flavor during the harvest season.

The major attraction of fall in New York State is the pageant of autumn color, an annual performance that plays for about three weeks in the latter part of October. The time of the foliage change varies somewhat with the geography of the state, beginning usually in the northern areas about the middle of October with other sections a week or so later.

Indian Occupation

Evidences of the Indian occupation of New York State are found today in the names of communities, rivers, lakes, mountains and other places.

Joe Says:

School has started. Mothers breathe sighs of relief and fathers can get back to the TV and the golf course. All this because someone else will be watching the children a good part of the day.

Safety slogans for motorists and school children alike will focus attention on road dangers and help cut auto accidents way down.

But I feel that as parents we must instruct our children in safety. Lessons taught in the home, like habits, last throughout life. Let's all take time out for a safety session with our school-going children. Motorists, police and school monitors can do a lot,—but the real lasting lessons in street crossing safety can be taught best right in the home.

Parents Must Help Young Come to Terms With Life

Pete's best friend attends a Sunday school which gives him colored pictures of Jesus walking on water and looking for lambs on mountains. Envious, Pete asked if he could go to Sunday school too. His father said yes, not because he wanted religious instruction for Pete but because he understood the boy's envy.

One morning Pete came home from Sunday school unusually silent and preoccupied. Finally the trouble came out. His teacher had told him that Jesus said, "Do good to those who hate you."

Worriedly Pete said, "That dopey Bill Sloan hates me. But you told me to kick him in the shins when he tries to shove me off my bike. That wasn't doing good to Bill Sloan, Daddy. Jesus wouldn't have liked it."

"Let me think a minute," his father said.

Then, dropping his clipping shears, he sat down on the lawn beside Pete.

"Maybe," he said, feeling his way, "Jesus meant that we do good to people who hate us by not letting them push us around. Bill Sloan's got to learn that he can't shove smaller kids off bikes whenever he feels like it. So if you don't let him shove you off yours, I think you're doing good to him."

It was the first time in the life of Pete's father that he'd given serious original thought to a religious meaning.

Sooner or later all children require this thought of us.

Joan's new kitten gets run over. As you dig the grave behind the garage, you know that your grief-stricken child is thinking, "Where has Fluffy gone? Why is she so stiff when just this morning she was purring on my pillow?"

Eddie reads a magazine article on the ICBM and asks you, "What's the sense of my sweating out another year at college when all hell can break loose any minute?"

Beth finds a broken chrysalis in the back field and asks you, "How did the butterfly know that it had stopped being a caterpillar and could fly?"

If religion is man's effort to come to terms with life and death, then all these questions are religious ones.

For parents of orthodox faiths, the answers come easier than for those who subscribe to none.

But from all parents the questions rate serious attention and respect.

Ulster Motor Tax Share Is $28,000

Ulster County will receive $28,214.78 as its share of motor vehicle tax receipts to the counties of the state and New York for the three months ending June 30.

State Comptroller Arthur Levitt today announced the distribution of $2,584,884.09 of motor vehicle tax receipts to the counties in the state and New York City, the share of which is $897,006.80.

The share is returned to the counties in accordance with the state highway law.

The law provides that 25 per cent of the fees collected under the vehicle and traffic law, exclusive of application fees and service charge for special plates, from residents of counties be returned to local government.

The money is deposited by counties in the county road funds, from which expenditures for construction and maintenance of county road systems are made. The money paid to the City of New York is to be credited to the city's general fund for construction and maintenance of city streets, highways and parkways. Checks are being mailed to the county fiscal officers and to the treasurer of the City of New York.

Erie Joins U.S. Probe of $49,500 Contract Payoffs

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — Erie County's district attorney is joining federal investigators probing reported payoffs of $49,500 by a Buffalo contracting firm to city officials for street paving contracts.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Carman F. Ball said Wednesday night that Raymond F. Brayer, president of the contracting firm, would be subpoenaed to appear before the September term of the Erie County grand jury.

U. S. Atty. John O. Henderson asked the Federal District Court Wednesday to order Brayer to show cause why he should not disclose company records sought by the federal investigators.

To Henderson's motion were attached transcripts of an Internal Revenue hearing last January on the company's tax liability for 1954-56. The transcripts reported that Brayer refused to testify how the $49,500 was used on the ground that his answers might tend to incriminate him.

According to the transcript, Brayer said he signed 18 checks totaling $49,500 made out to "cash" during the two year period. On the records of his firm, the Rock Asphalt Co., the money was charged to promotion expense.

The transcript showed that Brayer pleaded the Fifth Amendment to requests for details.

More Marines Are To Quit Lebanon

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—A second battalion of U.S. Marines will sail home from Lebanon next week, but retiring President Camille Chamoun says the remaining 10,000 American troops may stay here until the end of October.

The 1,700-man battalion will begin boarding ships Monday. They will sail for the East Coast Sept. 19.

The Defense Department in Washington said the battalion's place at sea with the 6th Fleet will be taken by about 1,900 men of the 6th Marine Regiment now loading at Morehead City, N.C.

Adm. James L. Holloway, commander of U.S. forces in Lebanon, gave no indication that withdrawal of more American troops was imminent. Holloway has been in frequent conference lately with Chamoun and the man who will succeed him as president Sept. 24, Gen. Fuad Chehab.

The admiral reaffirmed U.S. declarations that the troops would remain in this little Middle East nation "only so long as desired by the Lebanese government." They landed in July at Chamoun's request after two months of rebellion against Chamoun by adherents of President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic and the overthrow of the pro-Western government in nearby Iraq.

Possibly by design, the partial withdrawal will begin as the U.N. General Assembly opens its regular session next Tuesday.

Rockefeller Off On Upstate Tour

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Nelson A. Rockefeller embarked today on his first full-fledged campaign tour Upstate — a quick swing through the heavily Republican Mohawk Valley.

On his one-day excursion, the GOP candidate for governor planned stops at Gloversville, Johnstown, Canajoharie and Herkimer.

The schedule called for handshaking tours through glove factories in Gloversville and a food processing plant in Canajoharie, a courthouse-steps speech in Johnstown and street tours in both Canajoharie and Herkimer.

After his nomination, Rockefeller made a personal visit to the St. Lawrence River valley and appeared twice in Syracuse. Today's swing was the first on his campaign schedule.

Rockefeller planned to fly back to New York City tonight from the Utica-Rome airport.

To Return Tonight

Rockefeller's running mate for the U. S. Senate, Rep. Kenneth B. Keating of Rochester, toured Batavia Wednesday and went on to Warsaw in rural Wyoming County Wednesday night.

Keating told a primarily farmer audience in Warsaw he hoped Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan of Manhattan, his Democratic opponent, would tackle the farm issue.

"I hope for his sake," Keating remarked, "that he will study the matter a little before he speaks about it. And I certainly hope... that he won't rely on the present governor of New York for his information."

Wall Section Collapses

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—A big section of wall on a four-story apartment house collapsed today, showering bricks into a parking lot.

The building was evacuated last night after the wall cracked its entire height. Thirty-three persons, including 11 small children, were ordered out of the building and another apartment house adjoining. Gas and electric lines were shut off.

The wall along the first two floors collapsed.

Building Commissioner Philip J. Gallagher began an inquiry to determine whether the wall had been weakened by the razing of four buildings next to it.

He said he also would determine whether the second apartment house should be condemned.

City X-ray Survey And Tuberculosis Topics at Rotary

The free chest X-ray examination, which will start in this city September 30 and continue for 10 days, was discussed by Miss Hazel Steed, executive secretary of the Ulster County TB and Health Association, Inc., at the Kingston Rotary Club luncheon Wednesday.

Miss Steed said Ulster County and the State of New York have a serious problem in the incidence of tuberculosis. Ulster County is rated fourth highest in the state.

The free X-ray survey is being sponsored by state and county health departments and the Ulster County TB Association. The New York State Department of Health will provide the mobile X-ray units and technicians. Following the receipt of reports, the local health staff will make follow-up contacts and if further X-rays are needed, they will be done at the Ulster County TB Hospital following consultation with private physicians. All reports are confidential.

Dr. Herbert F. Schwartz, medical director of the Ulster County TB Hospital, who introduced the speaker, explained the operation of the local hospital and its function with the free X-ray survey.

Implementing Miss Steed's talks was a motion picture presenting the facts about tuberculosis. Graphic examples were shown that tuberculosis germs don't care about age, sex, race or where you live. "TB can strike anyone, anywhere." Also that modern drugs help, but it takes months, sometimes years to cure tuberculosis. "Ask any of the 250,000 Americans who have had it."

Whale Features

Though a descendant of land animals that were hairy and four-legged, the whale has a naked skin except for a few scattered hairs on the head. Its only trace of hind limbs are a few tiny bones hidden at the base of the powerful tail.

Jittery Over Fan Mail

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Army missile expert is getting jittery over his fan mail from juvenile rocket enthusiasts. He's afraid he may get blown up.

The trouble, says Lt. Col. Charles M. Parkin, is that some of the kids "think nothing, apparently, of tucking into their letters enough solid rocket fuel to render me of no service whatsoever to anybody."

The mail began pouring in to him at nearby Ft. Belvoir, Va., several months ago after some magazine articles and TV demonstrations tabbed Parkin as the key man in the Army's program of cooperating with the small fry missilemen.

His appeal to the youngsters: Please omit fuel samples.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — For the more than 4½ million Americans out of work, the business recovery can't come too soon.

The best thing about the government's latest report on unemployment is that it shows the situation isn't getting any worse.

More Apparent Than Real

The official figures indicate a drop in unemployment between mid-July and mid-August. But that drop seems to be more apparent than real.

It was confined largely to the removal of job-seeking students from the labor force. For the mature worker the situation was little changed.

The influx of students into the labor force in June sent that month's total unemployed to a recession peak of 5½ million.

Real Test Coming

There are still two million more persons out of work than a year ago. While increased industrial output has called some back to jobs most of the gain in production has been accomplished either by greater productivity through the use of better equipment or by lengthening of the work week.

The real test of the employment trend will show up this month and next.

If the auto industry comes to terms with its workers and there is no strike, employment figures should rise reasonably and the recovery should get up enough momentum to whittle at the disheartening total of the jobless.

Speeding up of work on the new models this month and next — barring a labor stoppage—should send employment sharply upward.

Gradually Pulling Up

For factory workers with jobs, the summer has seen a slow increase in the number of hours worked. The average factory work week is still below last year's figure but is gradually pulling up toward 40 hours again.

This, coupled with wage increases in some industries, has increased their take-home pay and has helped keep the total of consumer spending at a fairly high level.

Partly because of this, many merchants are turning very optimistic about fall and Christmas trade. Their supplies report a jump in reordering.

AID ON THE MOVE— Chinese Nationalist soldiers roll barrels of oil ashore from landing ship on Quemoy Island in the Formosa Strait. Island, only 2,300 yards from the Communist-held Chinese mainland, is defended by troops equipped and trained by U. S.

U.S., Britain Agree to Meet For Ban Talks

LONDON (AP) — The United States and Britain have agreed to meet the Soviet Union in Geneva Oct. 31 to negotiate for a worldwide ban on nuclear weapon tests, informed diplomats reported today.

American and British notes delivered in Moscow Wednesday answered communications from Sosivet Premier Khrushchev last month on suspension of nuclear weapon tests.

The Western countries did not indicate in their notes at what level the Geneva talks should take place.

The talks were first proposed by the Americans and British after scientists representing the Communist and Western powers had agreed on steps needed to supervise any worldwide arrangement.

Washington and London proposed that test firing would cease from Oct. 31 provided the Soviet Union agreed to join the conference in Geneva. They suggested the negotiations should be for a pact to suspend testing on a year-to-year basis.

In his reply, Khrushchev countered with the proposal that any agreement to quit testing should be permanent.

Bride of Three Days Loses Fight With Polio

OGDENSBURG, N Y. (AP)—Bulbar polio has taken the life of Mrs. John P. Clements, 20, of Fulton, a bride of three days. She was stricken while on her honeymoon.

Mrs. Clements became ill Tuesday while at a summer home in the Town of Lisbon, Dr. Ludwig Auerbach of Waddington said. She died several hours later in a hospital here.

Her sister, Miss Jane Chalone, 19, also of Fulton, was stricken with polio last month. She is reported recovering in a Syracuse hospital.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chicken looks like the most popular bargain special at the nation's grocery counters this weekend.

Fryers, broilers and roasting chickens are being offered in many stores with prices slashed as low as 29 cents a pound.

Supply Increasing

ing steadily, and a recent spurt in the births of baby chicks promises to keep the trend running that way.

Right now egg prices are four to eight cents a dozen higher. Pork prices also are up this week, while beef and lamb are a bit more expensive in scattered areas.

Vegetable bins still offer many bargains, although produce from nearby fields is waning in some areas. Best bets this week are snap beans, cabbage, onions, potatoes, radishes and sweet potatoes. Potatoes are especially attractive.

You can get good buys, too, among carrots, cucumbers, squash and sweet corn. Shipments of corn are getting lighter, but condition generally is not quite up to earlier standards, so the price stays low. Celery, tomatoes and peppers are fairly good buys.

Peaches Still Bargain

Fruit bins reflect the onset of autumn. Peaches still are a bargain, but watermelons are starting to show signs of poor condition. Cantaloupes are higher.

Meanwhile, apples and grapes, are getting more and more plentiful. Limes, pears and prunes also are good buys.

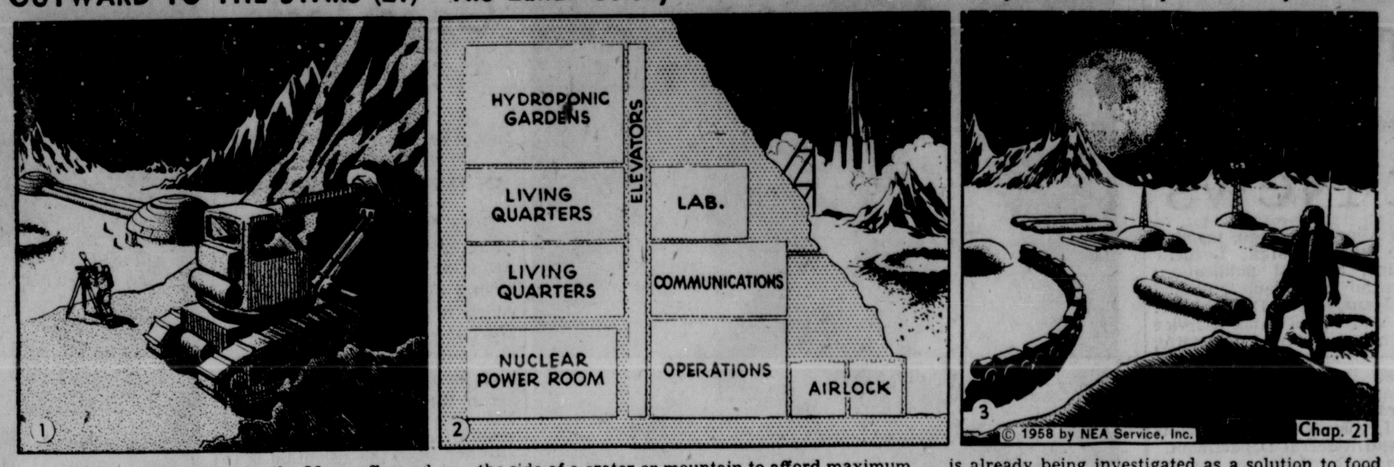
OUTWARD TO THE STARS (21)—The Lunar Colony

By Don Oakley and Ralph Lane



(1) A permanent colony on the Moon offers advantages similar to that of a space station orbiting about Earth—as an astronomical laboratory, for instance, or an advance base for the exploration of other planets.

The maintenance of such a lunar colony is entirely feasible, in the view of many authorities. Oxygen could probably be extracted from ores, and even water obtained from minerals. In time, the colony could be self-supporting.

Due to the absence of atmosphere and the danger from cosmic rays and falling meteors, a permanent base may be constructed, at least in part, in the side of a crater or mountain to afford maximum protection. While excavations are underway above, temporary domes shelter the workers.

(2) This cutaway shows suggested layout of a lunar colony. A nuclear reactor supplies power, heat and light to its various sections. A hydroponic garden supplements food supplies from Earth.

The science of biology will play an important part in the establishment of the colony. Special crops, suitable for use on the Moon, may have to be evolved. Although hydroponic farming is still experimental, it will doubtless make great advances long before men reach the Moon. The synthesizing of foods from strains of algae and yeast is already being investigated as a solution to food shortages on Earth.

(3) From the Moon base, now quite extensive and self-sustaining, with its outlying laboratories, observatories and shops, a land train sets out to explore distant areas and survey mineral resources.

At the same time, astronomers study the Earth and the universe. With no haze or intervening atmosphere and no weather to spoil observations, they have an unobstructed view of the stars and planets. A celestial body which will undoubtedly get top priority is Mars, the planet that has intrigued man for centuries.

U.S. Jury Continues Probe of Apalachin

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — A federal grand jury today resumes its current investigation of the notorious Apalachin gangland meeting last November.

Among witnesses scheduled for appearance are Charles J. Bufalino Sr. of Pittston, Pa., Palmer Correale of Hazleton, Pa., and James Falzone, president of a local building contractor's firm.

The grand jury is investigating the business background and income tax records of a number of area men who attended the meeting.

At Wednesday's opening session, the wife of Dominick D'Agostino of Niagara Falls used the Fifth Amendment in declining to answer several questions, according to U. S. Atty. John O. Henderson.

D'Agostino was one of 60 men rounded up by state police at the estate of Joseph Barbara in the Apalachin raid. He himself pleaded the Fifth Amendment earlier this year when the jury opened its investigation.

New Hurley

NEW HURLEY—Some from here attended the funeral of David Hollingsworth in Millbrook Friday afternoon. Hollingsworth was the husband of the former Anna Beatty of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shurter of Marlboro were supper guests at the home of their cousins, Mrs. Edward Powell and sister Sunday. In the evening they accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Shurter to Gardiner and called on Mr. and Mrs. Luther Dusinberre.

Thomas Secore will preach in the New Hurley Reformed Church Sunday at 11 a. m. and Sunday school in the church hall at 9:50 a. m. Charles Everett will be the guest soloist. Miss Carol Kniffen will be organist during the month of September.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—State auditors are checking funds of the Schenectady County Public Welfare Department, its commissioner says.

1,037 Students Get College Aid

Ralph F. Peo of Buffalo, chairman of the New York Higher Education Assistance Corporation, today announced that over 1,000 loans have been approved and guaranteed since June and that private banks in the state have now granted loans of over a half a million dollars to enable York State students to attend college this fall.

On June 30, 1958, the New York Higher Education Assistance Corporation announced the first group of student loans approved for guarantee. At that time it had guaranteed seventy-one (71) loans with a total of $37,435.00.

In the two months since June additional loans have been guaranteed so that the total now stands at over 1,000 loans and over a half a million dollars.

Peo who is also president and chairman of Houdaille Industries, Inc., said that the 1,037 young people who are receiving this assistance come from all parts of our state, have obtained these loan from 114 different commercia banks, and are attending 135 different colleges in thirty-four (34) different states, as well as in Canada.

Board of Directors

"The volunteer is the key person within a Girl Scout Council and the strength and development of the movement in a local area is dependent upon the willingness of each volunteer to assume the responsibility of performing his particular job well," Eunice Thomson, executive director of the Ulster County Council of Girl Scouts, Inc.. told members of the Board of Directors at their opening fall meeting held at the Girl Scout Office, 290 Fair Street, on Monday, Sept. 8.

"Volunteers function best and enjoy their Scout participation more when they have the freedom to initiate their own ideas under the guidance of the executive director within the Council's cooperative plan of work," Miss Thomson emphasized as she brought to the group the highlights of the executive directors' training course which she attended at Camp Edith Macy, outstanding National Girl Scout Training Center, Pleasantville, August 3-15.

The course offered intensive training for recently appointed executive directors within the Girl Scout organization. Twelve executive directors representing nine different states from Texas and North Dakota to the eastern seaboard, attended the training session with Miss Thomson who assumed her directorship with the local Council in May. Instructors, top specialists in their fields. included: Carole McConnell and Beverly Robbins, National Training Team; Shane McCarthy, member of President Eisenhower's Commission on Youth Fitness; Min Segat, National Girl Scout Personnel department; Gwen Elsemore, National program department; Thelma Langley, Professional with the Chicago Council in human relations.

Also Alice Sanderson, member of the editorial staff, Leaders' magazine, national publication; Ruth Ann Newman, National Office Management Department; Anita Walters, Finance Service Department; Marie Gaudette, nature specialist, formerly of the National Program Department; Al Adamo, National Equipment Services Department; and Katherine Lewis, National Recruitment and Referral Department.

During the business session with Mrs. Calvin Wygant Sr., of Marlboro, council president presiding Robert Greene of Woodstock, was elected by the board to fill the unexpired term of Alan Mickel, council finance chairman. Mr. Greene, well-known for his civic work, is affiliated with IBM Military Products Division as coordinator. He resides with his family at Byrdcliff, Woodstock. Mrs. Greene, former Girl Scout Neighborhood chairman of Woodstock, is an active member of the council serving as camp development chairman.

Mrs. Kenneth Martin, of Woodstock, chairman, District 1, reported on the Ulster County Fair booth project. Undertaken jointly by Onteora and Woodstock-West Hurley, Girl Scout neighborhoods within District 1, the project was successfully carried through under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. Majoras of Woodstock. The board commended the group for their fine participation.

Mrs. Donovan Buehring, public relations chairman, gave a report of the Community Chest Board meeting of which the Girl Scout Council is a member agency. Under the direction of Mrs. Kevin Rogan, Kingston Uptown Neighborhood chairman, and Miss Emily Card, Kingston Downtown Neighborhood chairman, Girl Scout volunteers will assist with the drive opening September 29.

Mrs. Gordon Anderson, member of the council finance committee, gave a progress report of the council's countywide drive for funds outside the Community Chest area.

The drive scheduled to coincide with the Kingston Area Community Chest Drive will officially open with the kick-off meeting to be held at the Governor Clinton Hotel on Monday, Sept. 22.

Mrs. John Flood of Kingston, program chairman, announced that the Girl Scout program will get underway with a council-wide field day scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 20. On this day, the Council's 2,000 Brownies, Intermediate and Senior Scouts together with their adult volunteers will participate in group activities on each level in an outdoor setting within each community neighborhood. Cookouts, outdoor skill games, folk dancing and group singing will highlight the day's activities. Troop program throughout the following year will focus upon the Hudson Valley folklore as Girl Scouts and volunteers prepare to participate actively in the Hudson-Champlain celebration within their respective communities.

Outstanding fall event for Adult Scouts and Senior Scouts will be the Region 11 Conference which will be held at the Ambassador Hotel, Atlantic City, N. J., on October 29-31. Council representatives will be announced within the near future. Interested adult Scouts are urged to contact the local office immediately for full conference information.

Faculty Members At New Paltz Win Blue Ribbon Awards

Three faculty members of the Art Education Division at the State University Teachers College, New Paltz, won five of the 18 blue ribbon honor awards at the fifth York State Crafts Fair held recently in Ithaca.

The blue ribbons, given to craftsmen in New York State for outstanding design in craftsmanship, were awarded to the following: Kenneth M. Green, assistant professor of ceramics, for a ceramic pitcher; Kurt J. Matzdorf, assistant professor of crafts, for a sterling water pitcher inlaid with gold; and George M. Wardlaw, assistant professor of art education, for three pieces of jewelry in mixed media.

Another member of the New Paltz art faculty, Larry Argiro, associate professor of art education, gave an illustrated lecture on contemporary methods of designing and executing mosaics. He also demonstrated his art to the large number of visitors who attended the fair.

Some of the ceramic work of Mr. Green is also on exhibit at two national shows. He won second prize at the Miami National Show for his ceramic sculpture "Ritual Candelabra," and he has another sculpture piece on exhibit at the Young Americans 1958 show at the Museum of Contemporary Crafts in New York City.

AN INVITATION THROUGH ANOTHER

Dear Mrs. Post: My niece is going to be confirmed next week. After the church service, we are having a reception at my house, which is larger than her house. My sister-in-law, the mother of my niece, telephoned a relative and invited her to the service and to the reception at my house. Now this relative claims that I should have been the one to invite her since the reception is to be at my house, and not my sister-in-law's. She is making quite a to-do about it. Just for my own satisfaction, I would like to know if she is right.

Answer: If the reception is being given by you, then she is right, but, even so, I think she is rather finicky not to consider the invitation of your sister-in-law sufficient. If your sister-in-law is giving the reception but merely having it at your house because it is larger, then it was her place to extend the invitation.

A Double Shower

Dear Mrs. Post: When giving a shower for two sisters who will be married at a double wedding, should all the invitations include both names or just the one name for each separate set of friends?

Answer: As a rule, the two names are put on the invitation although this does not mean that guests are expected to send gifts to both. They would, of course, if they know both equally well.

The Register at a Funeral Home

Dear Mrs. Post: I would like to know if it is necessary for each and every one who goes to the funeral home to sign the funeral register even when they see members of the immediate family. I always thought that one signed the register only when one did not see anyone in the family and in this case the register was signed so that the family would know you were there. I was told that I was wrong about this and that everyone signs it.

Answer: I think that to avoid any confusion all should sign the register.

Paltz Art Group To Hear Noted Artist Sept. 16

Ilya Bolotowsky, internationally known artist, will show and discuss his unique art movies at the annual fall meeting of the New Paltz Art Association, at 8:45 p. m. Tuesday, Sept. 16, in the Gordon Pine Room of the Elting Memorial Library in New Paltz.

Mr. Bolotowsky, professor of art at the State University Teachers College, New Paltz, is considered by prominent art critics to be one of the finest artists in this country. Since World War II, Mr. Bolotowsky has had seven one-man shows in New York City's "blue ribbon" galleries. He has also exhibited in Europe, South America, Hawaii, and many of his paintings hang in leading American museums.

Mr. Bolotowsky studied art in Istanbul, Turkey and at the National Academy of Design in New York City. Before assuming his post at New Paltz he taught at the University of Wyoming and at Black Mountain College in North Carolina.

Because space is limited, the audience will be confined to Art Association members and to those who are interested in joining the group. It sponsors two annual art shows and holds weekly classes on Tuesday evening at the college. The group's classes will begin on Tuesday, Sept. 23.

Hadassah Program Plans Are Announced At Reception for Members Held on Tuesday

The Kingston branch of Hadassah, Women's Zionist Organization of America, climaxed this year's membership drive with a reception Tuesday, Sept. 9, in the Crystal Room of the Governor Clinton Hotel.

The paid-up members' event served as "kick-off" for the re-enrollment of Hadassah members; the drive will continue through the end of September.

Guest soloist for the evening was Eugene Flam, baritone, who appeared with the Turnau Opera Players of Woodstock this season. He presented a program of Israeli and Yiddish songs, operatic arias and show tunes. Accompanying her husband was Mrs. Ethel Flam; the couple sang together in a duet, "Bess, You Is My Woman Now" from Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess."

Inducted in a candlelight ceremony were 12 new members of Hadassah. They included the Mmes. Daniel Balsam, Martin Kantor, Morris Kalish, Jerome Strugatz, Stuart Tinkelman, Edward Kestenbaum, Harry Rose, David Schlam, Erwin Silling, Richard Baker, Arthur Motzkin and Miss Eleanor Cohen. Floral corsages were presented to the new members.

The ceremony was conducted by Mrs. David Kline, membership coordinator, and Mrs. Walter Suskind and Mrs. Seymour Werbalowsky, co-chairmen in charge of new members.

Mrs. Murray J. Fletcher, president of the Hadassah chapter, welcomed the guests and summarized last year's activities. She reported that the local group had oversubscribed all its quotas, raising more than $8,000 for Hadassah projects, and had also purchased, through the Bertha Smolen fund an infant resuscitator, now in use in a Hadassah hospital in Israel.

Mrs. Arthur H. London outlined plans for the "New and Nearly New" shop which Hadassah will operate in October. Proceeds from two such sales, held in the fall and spring, benefit vocational education projects. A cake sale will be held in conjunction with the shop.

Mrs. Melvin Navy, program coordinator, previewed plans for monthly meeting programs, which are aimed at keeping members well-informed on what Hadassah is doing in Israel through its many projects. Each meeting is devoted to a specific activity.

Mrs. Lotar Saluc, education chairman for Hadassah, discussed the approaching High Holy Days and evaluated their significance for Jewery and the world, while Mrs. Nathaniel G. Gross reported on the recent Israel Bond Drive meeting.

Mrs. Sidney Treinkman and Mrs. Rose Weinstein were co-chairmen in charge of refreshments for the reception, assisted by the Mmes. Ben Suskind, Herbert Bloom, William Buchbinder, Milton J. Dubin, Louis M. Ellenbogen, Nathaniel B. Gross, Edward Kestenbaum, Raphael Klein, Louis Kline, Arthur A. Moak, Louis Schwartz and George B. Starkman. Pouring were the Mmes. Herbert Gertner, Paul Glickman, Morris Berman and Edward Kestenbaum.

Officers of the local group in addition to Mrs. Fletcher are Mrs. Robert E. Davis, vice president and vocational education chairman; Miss Ruby Markson, treasurer; Mrs. Sidney Pauker, financial secretary; Mrs. R. E. Gellen, recording secretary; and Mrs. William Bushbinder, corresponding secretary. Other coordinators of major Hadassah programs are Mrs. Oscar B. London, in charge of fund-raising, and Mrs. Jay Melton, Hadassah Medical Organization and Donor Dinner.

Koenig Is Likely To Be Named as County Treasurer

Although Joseph J. Koenig, Democratic nominee for county treasurer, today had "no comment" to make when asked if he would accept an appointment from Governor Harriman as Ulster County Treasurer to fill a vacancy created by the sudden death last Sunday of County Treasurer Albert N. Cook, there is every indication that such an appointment will be made shortly.

Under the law the governor may appoint to the vacancy or the position may be left open with the deputy county treasurer serving until the office is filled by an election.

Was Named by GOP

County Treasurer Cook had been nominated by the Republican Party to succeed himself at the November election.

Who will be named by the Republican committee on vacancies as the party choice has not been determined. County Chairman Kenneth L. Wilson today said that a meeting of the committee would be held and that the decision probably would be made "by the end of the week."

McHugh Mentioned

Meanwhile, there is speculation as to who the Republican choice may be. Prominently mentioned is Supervisor Jesse McHugh of Shawangunk, Republican majority leader of the Board of Supervisors, although there are some who believe McHugh would be reluctant to leave the board. Another being mentioned is Supervisor Peter Williams of Saugerties who has served on the Board since 1950, and who also may be reluctant to leave the board.

Several of his friends have advanced the name of J. Ellis Briggs, local appliance dealer who has served as president of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce. Former Sheriff Howard C. Anderson of Accord is also being mentioned by supporters.

EWIG SWORN IN—Federal Judge John M. Cashin, former Ulster County judge, administers oath of office to his former law partner, newly-appointed Special City Judge Arthur B. Ewig, who once served as corporation counsel and county attorney. Observing ceremony are (l-r) Mayor Edwin F. Radel; Judge Ewig's daughters, Mrs. Barbara Ronder and Mrs. Joan Weschler, and Mrs. Ewig. The ceremony was held Tuesday morning at city hall when Judge Ewig succeeded John J. Schick who resigned the special city judgeship the previous day, he said, to campaign as Democratic candidate for district attorney. (Lipgar photo)

Local Guardsmen To Attend Parley Of Militia Group

Ten delegates from the 156th Field Artillery Battalion, New York Army National Guard, will attend the 74th Annual Conference of the Army and Air National Guard and Naval Militia Association of the State of New York being held in the Hotel Sheraton Ten Eyck, Albany on September 12-13.

Calhoun, assistant plans and training officer, Nelson J. Houghtaling, service battery commander, Edwin J. Schrowang, headquarters battery commander, First Lieut. William Freer, aviation officer, Second Lieut. George A. Armstrong, assistant executive officer Battery B, Chief Warrant Officers Thomas W. Miller, battalion personnel officer and John G. Reynolds, motor officer, service battery.

The conference will open Friday morning and sessions will be held until evening. A reception and the traditional annual banquet of the association will be held in the main ballroom of the hotel Friday night. Election of officers and business session will be conducted Saturday. All commissioned and warrant officers of the military and naval forces of New York State are members of this association.

RETURNS FROM PARENTS' FUNERAL—Eight-year-old Melvin Nimer Jr., leaves Idlewil airport, New York, by car after arrival from Utah where he attended funeral of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Melvin Nimer. His parents were stabbed to death Sept. 2 at their Staten Island home. District Attorney John M. Braisted said the boy was brought bac from Utah for questioning in the slaying of his parents. # Griffen . . .

ponents to sway the commissioner—by another referendum.

Charges Falsification

He also charged that the board of education, in presenting its arguments for consolidation prior to the referendum, had falsified certain facts.

Rider charged that the people of Kingston did not have the legal power and right to determine the issue of consolidation at the polls. He pointed out that the referendum had no legal force, was only an informal vote. He deplored the lack of this popular expression.

Calling attention to the fact that the Kingston Board of Education is appointive, he asked, "Is this taxation without representation?"

"I don't think so," Griffen replied.

What About Letter?

John Vines, president of the board of trustees of the Chambers School, called Griffen's attention to a recent promise of Commissioner Allen that a letter would be forthcoming within the near future embodying certain recommendations for rural school action, in view of the present consolidation stalemate.

He said the commissioner also promised a "definite date" for some kind of solution to the impasse.

Vines asked Griffen if he had any knowledge of the status of such a reply, what progress the commissioner had made in formulating such recommendations and when they would be in the hands of the rural advisory committee. Griffen replied that he had "no comment."

Other Replies Given

1. That some 2,900 children would come into Kingston schools under consolidation, including 1,400 who now attend the city's schools on a tuition-paying basis.

2. That under consolidation a ceiling would still be in effect on board of education expenditures, as it is now. It would be higher, of course. State Education Law limits the amount of money that a board may spend without submitting the question to a vote of the people.

3. That 1955 studies indicate the tax rate would rise slightly during the next six years under consolidation. The prognostications are based, of course, on the 1955 dollar, the salary scales then in effect, etc. A "race with inflation" would force a revision of estimates upward.

4. State aid would underwrite much of the cost of new construction, transportation, etc.

5. That pulling out of rural children from city schools would mean an extensive curtailment of educational services.

6. That failure to consolidate would obviously have an "adverse effect" on the local educational program. He said it requires a high school student body of at least 1,500 to insure a wholly adequate program.

Competition for Funds

In his prepared speech Griffen, a native of the mid-Hudson Valley who can remember an occasion many years ago when he crossed the Hudson river one winter with a "team or horses," said that there is keen competition for funds for education. Also competing are roads, health services, defense, rivers and harbors, United Nations, etc., the federal government having taken over a large source of tax revenue.

He said the educational crisis was understood before the Russians got Sputnik into the air, warnings having come from leaders like Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission and Admiral Rickover, father of the atomic submarine, among others.

Griffen told the club that "we were adequately warned that the Soviet program was "outstripping us."

Cites Lack of Courses

He pointed out that less than half of our high schools have courses in chemistry, that from 250,000 to 400,000 students are learning high school math from teachers not properly qualified to teach it, that part-time teachers in math outnumber the full-time teachers, etc.

It is very clear now that the Russians saw the power that comes with education, he stated. "They have been willing to spend the money to beat us in the educational field."

During the past 25 years the Russians have turned out 682,000 scientists to our 408,000. In medicine they have graduated twice as many as this country.

He said that many high school graduates in the United States don't go to college—100,000 because of lack of motivation, another 100,000 because of lack of funds, and these students in the top third of their classes.

He traced briefly the history of educational reorganization in New York state, including consolidation of city school districts with smaller outlying districts, the origin of state aid, etc., pointing out that expanding and improved curriculums require larger student bodies. There is a need for enough pupils to be able to have a complete math program, for instance, a broad science program, a balanced English curriculum, etc.

He said there would be an intensification of the practice of putting the bright students together in one class and the slower ones in another.

Finally, he traced briefly the history of the consolidation issue in Kingston and the meeting was opened to questions.

Rockefeller Is Due to Visit in Kingston on 17th

Nelson A. Rockefeller, Republican candidate for governor will be in Kingston Wednesday according to his present schedule.

Rockefeller will visit Catskill and Hudson that day in a quick swing around the state. He will be met in Hudson by Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson, chairman of the Ulster County Republican Central Committee. Present plans call for a luncheon at the Governor Clinton Hotel, but definite arrangements have not been completed as to whether it will be a public luncheon or confined to "conference" with local Republicans leaders.

First baseball World Series was played in 1903 between the Boston Americans and Pittsburgh Nationals, with Boston winning.

LOOK MA, NO STEERING WHEEL - - -

General Motors is introducing its newest experimental car, the Firebird III. Most revolutionary of several innovations is the control system. A short stick located between the two passenger seats does all the work of a steering wheel, accelerator and brake pedal. It is operated from either seat. Pressing left or right does the steering. Pushing forward accelerates and pulling backward puts on the brake. Pivoting the handle of the stick puts the car in "park," "reverse" or "drive." An improved gas turbine engine is located in the rear of the car. In the nose is a 10-horsepower piston engine to power the car's accessories. Shown right, below, is the stick control and the simplified instrument panel. At left, below, the car is in "Autoglide" which allows no-hands driving. It electronically follows a low-frequency powered cable imbedded in the white strip on the highway.

M-W. Camp Vols Have Emergency Area Reservoir

Assurances that land and water rights covering an emergency reservoir in the Vly in West Camp would be granted the Malden-West Camp Fire Company were reported to members of the volunteer company at the Tuesday night meeting in West Camp firehouse.

A small tract of land giving the fire company access to the water will be given to the volunteers by a member of the company, Nelson Burhans, local builder and contractor.

Granting of water rights will also be deeded to the company by Truman and Foster Winchell Sr. Negotiations are underway this week to sign necessary documents.

As a token of gratitude, all three property owners were voted life membership in the company.

The reservoir, according to a committee report will require deepening. It will provide a water source for fire emergencies and for filling the water tanks of the two company fire trucks stationed in West Camp.

The volunteers have installed a pipeline to provide convenient connections with fire company hose. The reservoir is located a short distance to the northwest of the West Camp firehouse.

A low bid of $995 submitted by Thomas Riozzi of Barclay Heights to brick veneer the Malden fire station was accepted, and work on the firehouse will begin as soon as Riozzi's present job is completed, it was reported. Only two bids were received. The bid was for labor only. Materials will be supplied by the fire company.

Luther Emerick in charge of the coin card collection campaign of the company reported that over $900 had been collected thus far and that he expects the total to be over $1,000.

Charles Daley, delegate to the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association reported that the next meeting of the county unit will be held in Centerville firehouse Tuesday, Sept. 16 at 8 p. m. He urged as many members as possible to attend. Discussions will be on the new two-way radio system being installed for the volunteer companies in the county.

Mrs. Helen Myers of West Camp was presened with the award of the month.

Miss Saugerties Begins Gotham Tour on Friday

Moira Altevogt, Miss Saugerties of 1959 will embark on her "fabulous weekend in New York," Friday morning. The tour of New York City was one of the awards to the winner of this year's pageant sponsored by Saugerties Area Chamber of Commerce.

She will be accompanied by Mrs. Joan Feldmann, social activities chairman of the Chamber.

Upon arrival she will check in at the Belmont Plaza and prepare for an interview and picture taking at Kenneth Model Agency.

Later in the day she and Mrs. Feldmann will visit with Jerry Marshall, well known WMGM disc jockey at one of the recording studios. Marshall, a native of Saugerties, will arrange for a snack date with Joni James, nationally known recording star.

In the evening Miss Altevogt will attend the Jack Paar NBC-TV show at 11:30 p. m. Arrangements are in process to have the Saugerties queen introduced by Parr from the audience.

Saturday the pageant winner will be directed on a four-and-a-half-hour tour of New York City including the Museum of Modern Art.

Sunday she will attend the Ed Sullivan Show at 8 p. m. The committee is working on clearance to have Miss Saugerties introduced by Sullivan from the audience at that show. Miss Altevogt and Mrs. Feldmann will return to Saugerties that night.

Name Legion Ball Committee Heads

Committee chairman for the annual Saugerties American Legion Ball Saturday, Nov. 29 at Saugerties Municipal Auditorium, were named by Roy S. Helsmoortel, general chairman at a special committee meeting Wednesday night at the Legion Home.

The 1958 ball will have the same format as last year and will feature a dance orchestra and several acts of vaudeville prior to the dancing.

Edwin Bond and John W. Davis will be co-chairmen of the program committee.

The Legion Auxiliary is currently canvassing for advertisements for the program, and they will also be in charge of the hat check concession at the ball.

Davis and Helsmoortel head the advertisement committee.

A discussion was held on the type orchestra the committee would like but no decision was made.

West Camp Church Sets Fall Dinner Oct. 15

The dinner under the auspices of West Camp Auxiliary will be served from 5 p. m. until all are served.

Fishers Separate; Debbie Is Still In Love, She Says

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Debbie Reynolds and Eddie Fisher have separated although Debbie says, "I'm still in love with my husband."

They split up Wednesday as Hollywood reverberated to rumors that Elizabeth Taylor was the cause of it all.

She slipped into seclusion. Eddie moved in with a friend, comedian Joey Forman. Debbie, after hiding out Wednesday with friends, returned to the family home.

She's Deeply Shocked

"I am still in love with my husband," she told newsmen late Wednesday night. "I am deeply shocked over what has happened."

Reporters asked her about Miss Taylor's comment.

"We were never happier than we have been in the last year," said Miss Reynolds. "I've tried to call Miss Taylor several times in the last two days—but I haven't been able to reach her."

Denies It's Her Idea

"Eddie is a great guy," she said. "Don't blame him for what's happened."

EDDIE TALKS TO THE PRESS—Singer Eddie Fisher, back in Hollywood from a New York visit during which he was a frequent night club escort of actress Liz Taylor, wrings his hands as he talks with newsmen outside his home. Eddie said he and his wife, actress Debbie Raynolds, are having a misunderstanding and hope to work it out. (AP Wirephoto)

3-State Alarm

Police Hunt Girl, Parolee on Armed Robbery Charge

WARRENSBURG, N. Y. (AP)—Armed patrols roamed a vast area from the Adirondacks to the Canadian border today for a paroled convict and his 17-year-old girl friend who allegedly stole a taxicab yesterday.

Abducted Taxi Driver

State police said Potter and the girl, Wanda Hayes, both of Warrensburg, abducted taxi driver Kenneth Cook and later left him along a highway.

Officials thought the pair was trying to reach the Canadian border, which is 110 miles north of this community in Warren County.

Border patrolmen set up roadblocks along the New York-Canadian border and in parts of Vermont. State police patrolled all highways and dirt roads.

A 13-state alarm was issued. Troopers said the pair was wanted for armed robbery.

The couple hailed Cook Wednesday morning in Warrensburg and asked him to take them to Glens Falls.

About two miles outside of Warrensburg, Cook told troopers, Potter shoved the shotgun into his back. They bound Cook with electric wire and left him by the roadside. They did not take his money, Cook said.

Worked Self Free

Cook worked himself free within an hour, walked a mile to a house and notified troopers.

Cook said he attended school with Miss Hayes. He said he also knew Potter.

Potter was sentenced to 4-8 years in 1955 for a robbery in Chestertown. He was paroled several months ago from Clinton State Prison at Dannemora.

Would Surrender Islands

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) — Prime Minister Walter Nash tonight advocated surrender of Quemoy and Matsu to Communist China and a neutral, demilitarized Formosa guaranteed against aggression by the United Nations. Nash told Parliament the offshore islands are historically part of the mainland.

DEBBIE GOES FOR A VISIT — Actress Debbie Reynolds leaves her home with her daughter, Carrie, to visit friends, marking the first time she has met newsmen since the talk concerning her husband, Eddie Fisher and Elizabeth Taylor, started. Fisher, who was in their Hollywood home, did not accompany his wife.

With the peak of the vacation period passed, Monticello Raceway is being put through the crucible between now and closing date—Sept. 20—to determine if 1958 will be a successful first-year operation or a bath in red ink.

Frank Devlin, the MR president, told metropolitan reporters he was optimistic about retaining about 75 percent of the pre-Labor Day business. Up through and including Labor Day, traditional windup of the summer season, Monticello had average nightly crowds of 4,559 and mutuel handles of $187,000.

But the three-week period after Labor Day represents the critical period for MR. It will determine a profit or loss for the Sullivan County track. If business slumps badly for the remainder of the season, there is a good chance MR will not ask for dates beyond Labor Day in 1959.

The track has had its problems. There was a delay in construction details because of a rough winter. There also has been disharmony in the track's operation and at one time there appeared to be more chiefs than Indians. Some of MR's directors can't agree on track policy and operation and Commissioner George Monaghan is trying to reconcile differences between the directors.

Devlin remains steadfastly optimistic about the future. He figures a new road will help next year. He thinks MR has created new fans and acquired the experience that will overcome many difficulties that beset the track in 1958.

Louis W. Kaye of Kaye Sportwair has been named local distributor for the NCAA Official Football Guide, annually the first national football publication off the presses . . . Floyd (Ben) Schwartzwalder, the dean of all Syracuse University football coaches, completes a full decade at the Orange helm this fall. During Ben's nine-year regime Syracuse has returned to the national limelight. Both his 1952 and 1956 entries won the Lambert Trophy, emblematic of Eastern football supremacy, and both teams completed in bowl games. Schwartzwalder's nine-year log at Syracuse is 47 wins, 32 losses and two ties. He needs just six more wins to become the winningest grid coach of all time at Syracuse. In three seasons at Muhlenberg prior to Syracuse, Schwartzwalder's teams won 25 and lost 5. His 1946 team defeated St. Bonaventure in the Tobacco Bowl. His all-time record as a collegiate head coach is 72 wins, 37 losses and 2 ties.

• Baseball Banter:

National League batsmen already have hit more grand slams (18) this year than were recorded during the 1957 season (17). Hank Aaron and Ken Boyer have hit two apiece . . . The home run outburst staged by Jim Marshall in his NL debut with the Cubs came as no surprise to those familiar with his minor league record. Marshall hit three home runs in a doubleheader, first day in the NL. Marshall led the Pacific Coast League in homers with 31 in 1954; hit 30 with the same club in 1955; 28 with Memphis in 1956, and 30 with Vancouver last year . . . Philadelphia pinch hitters rapped seven home runs in the 17-day period from Aug. 8 through the 24th, and hit five in six days (7 games) from Aug. 8 through the 13th, which must be a record. The Cincinnati Redlegs set the all-time club record for a season with 12 pinch homers in 1957 . . . When Bud Palmer gets behind a mike at a basketball game he knows whereof he speaks. A Princeton star from 1940 through 1943, he led the Eastern League in scoring in 1943 with 170 points in 12 games. Palmer joined the New York Knicks in 1946 and remained with New York three seasons. He captained the 1948 and 1949 teams and his 15 field goals, scored against Philadelphia in 1948, is still a record for the 69th Regt. Armory.

A RANK OVERLAY—According to William R. Daley of Cleveland, the reason the Indians are not making money is that horse racing pulls away too many spectators. "If we could send bookmakers up and down the aisles shouting '3 to 1 he doesn't get a hit,' we'd get business back, says the club's chairman of the board. Bill Daley would, indeed, get the business, point out betting men. At those odds, any batter with better than a .250 average would be a rank overlay. Daley would soon find out what it's like to really lose money."

College Aces Challenge Old Pros in US Amateur

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Three golfing collegians confidently faced tough, experienced former champions Harvie Ward, Charlie Coe and Dick Chapman in the fifth round of the U.S. Amateur Tournament today.

"Sure, I think I can beat Ward," declared 20-year-old Ward Wettlaufer, a senior at Hamilton College in New York. "I'll surprise the golfing world. My game is at its peak."

Tom Morgan of Fresno (Calif.) State College met Coe, and Southeastern Conference titlist Tom Aaron of Florida teed off against Chapman, who won way back in 1940.

In all, five collegians were listed among the 16 starters, who didn't include last year's champion Hillman Robbins or the man who beat him Wednesday.

Winger Scores 55th Downs Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Al Winger is the darling of the fans at Vernon Downs. Especially those who bet the driver instead of the horse.

Winger, in the sulky behind Widow's Dream, posted his 55th victory of the season last night as the 3-year-old pacer won the feature race in ankle-deep mud and a driving rain. It was the 10th triumph for Widow's Dream.

Winger brought Widow's Dream out of third place at the head of the stretch and cut down the pace-setting Gratis. His horse returned $3.90.

At Saratoga Raceway, Kristy Joe Key won the $2,000 Rexford Trot for 3-year-olds but the excitement was provided by Mamie's Pride, a 99-to-1 shot. Mamie's Pride finished second and paid $55.10 for place and $30.90.

Kristy Joe Key, who returned $8.10 for her 2:05 4-5 performance, was driven by her co-owner, 74-year-old Lowell McLeod of South Barre, Vt.

Lumber Boy, reined by Philip Corley, won the Feature Class AA trot at Yonkers Raceway in 2:05 1-5. The 6-year-old son of Nibble Hanover, owned by Ed Schafer of Bradbury, Calif., returned $3.90.

Levi Fingo, racing in near-freezing weather, captured the feature Class B pace at Monticello Raceway. Howard Scott was the driver.

Columbia, Vim Get Close Look

By The Associated Press

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP) — The skipper of Sceptre admitted today that British "scouts" have been keeping close tabs on Vim and Columbia.

"Yes, we have been studying the techniques of the American crews," said Lt. Cmdr. Graham Mann. "Who wouldn't?"

Cmdr. Mann will steer the British yacht in her challenge for the America's Cup opening Sept. 20.

Resume Series

The defender will be either 19-year-old Vim or newly built Columbia. They resumed their showdown series today after a one-day postponement because of high winds and heavy seas.

Columbia leads three victories to two. The selection committee must make up its mind between the two by Saturday night.

Well Studied

The starting-line patterns followed by the two crews have been particularly well studied. Cmdr. Mann acknowledged that Sceptre and Gleam, her U. S.-owned trialhorse, set up their own starting line offshore and run through the Vim-Columbia maneuvers.

Today's resumption of the Vim-Columbia battle followed two major developments ashore.

Corny Shields, Columbia's 63-old starting skipper, announced he was quitting the boat on the advice of his doctor. Shields had to quit racing two years ago because of a heart attack.

Now Briggs Cunningham will sail the boat all the way, with Olin Stephens in reserve. Stephens is Columbia's designer.

In the other development, the seven-man selection committee sat down with members of the yachting press and spelled out the method they are using to pick a defender.

W. A. W. Stewart, 83-year-old chairman of the committee, said the group "has no such power to take one boat and the other crew."

Answer Challenge

This apparently was in reply to a newspaper challenge earlier this week to "put Vim's crew on Columbia and get it over with."

Columbia is regarded as slightly faster than Vim in winds over 15 knots. But Vim's crew is considered superior to Columbia's.

Stewart said the committee could suggest "anything to help" towards the successful defense of the cup—but that was as far as it could go.

He also stated that the committee is considering the defender on the potential of Sceptre.

"We are looking for the best performance of boat and crew in the weather that we reasonably anticipate during the cup races," Stewart added.

Garn Returns To Colgate Squad

HAMILTON, N. Y. (AP) — Big Bob Garn, apparently in good shape, is back to bulwark the Colgate football line at tackle.

Garn, a 24-year-old senior, was plagued by injuries in his sophomore and junior years. He reported to the squad yesterday.

Four Syracuse Pivots on Shelf

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Syracuse University's football team, known to be weak at center, has its top four pivotmen on the shelf.

First-team center Dave Applehof and reserve Fred Brandstadt watched yesterday's drill from the sidelines because of injuries. Charlie Heck and Jack Nichols are available for only limited service.

Takes 10 Innings Against Jints, HR Clinches It

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Friend of the Pittsburgh Pirates is the first pitcher to win 20 games in the National League this year.

Friend, 27, had to go 10 innings to do it, beating San Francisco 6-4 on Dick Stuart's two-out, two-run homer.

Gives Up 12 Hits

The Giants tagged him for a dozen hits and three walks. But Friend, with his mates getting only three hits over the last eight innings, left 11 on base and blanked the Giants on four singles over the last five frames.

The Bucs now hold second place by 5½ games over the Giants with the three-game sweep. The Milwaukee Braves, 6½ games ahead, kept rolling toward a second straight pennant by beating Cincinnati 3-0 on Juan Pizarro's three-hitter.

Cards Tie For 4th

St. Louis tied Cincinnati for fourth, beating the Chicago Cubs 3-1. Philadelphia knocked off Los Angeles 8-6.

Pizarro (6-2), a 21-year-old southpaw, gave up only a pair of singles by Pete Whisenant and Johnny Temple's double while gaining his first major league shutout. The Braves beat Bob Purkey (16-10) with a fifth-inning run on Billy Bruton's bunt and a two-out single by Red Schoendienst.

A pair of errors helped the Cards in a winning, two-run fifth while Wilmer Mizell (10-11) breezed with a four-hitter. Taylor Phillips (7-9) was the loser.

The Phils scored seven runs, three unearned, in three innings against loser Don Drysdale (11-13).

Tribe's Largest Night Game Draw See Sloppy Play

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

That "back-the-Indians" drive paid off with a crowd of 50,021 and a touch of irony at Cleveland Wednesday night.

It was the Tribe's largest night game draw since 1954, the last year they won the American League pennant. But the Injuns came through with the same sort of play that has kept the folks away ever since, losing 8-3 to the New York Yankees. Two of their runs were unearned, and the third was hustled home on three walks and a hit batsman.

Shades of Veeck

It was a Bill Veeck type deal that brought out the crowd. Fireworks, music, entertainment, prizes and a chance to see the Yankees, who had lost four of their last five games and seven of their last 12, reduce their magic number to five.

The Chicago White Sox, with nothing else to shoot for, padded their second-place edge over Boston to 2½ games by beating the Red Sox 7-2. Washington knocked off Detroit 5-4 and Kansas City defeated Baltimore 4-2.

Pierce Allows Eight

Southpaw Billy Pierce allowed eight hits and won his 16th for the White Sox. The White Sox broke a 2-all tie with five runs in the eighth off reliver Murray Wall (7-9).

Clint Courtney drove in four runs for the Senators, who were shut out on one hit by Paul Foytack (12-12) for five innings. Courtney's two-run double capped a three-run sixth, and his seventh homer was good for a clinching two runs in the eighth. Charlie Maxwell hit his third career grand-slam homer in the third for the Tigers, who then were blanked by Russ Kemmerer and winning reliever Tex Clevenger (9-8).

Rookie Willie Tasby's first homer, a solo shot in the sixth, gave the Orioles a 2-1 lead at Kansas City. But a two-out error and Hector Lopez's 15th homer put it away for the A's in the eighth. Bob Grim (6-6) was the winner. Jack Harshman (11-13) lost it.

Webb-Fullmer In Utah Clash

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Spider Webb of Chicago and ex-champion Gene Fullmer match wits and fists in a 10-round middleweight bout here tonight (9 p.m. MST).

Both expect to weigh slightly less than the 160-pound limit.

Fullmer, who held the middleweight title briefly in 1957, was rated only an even match for the heavier-punching Webb, twice NCAA champion at Idaho State College.

Fullmer is the number two middleweight contender. The fight against Webb marks his first big-time competition since he lost the title to Sugar Ray Robinson more than 18 months ago.

Fullmer, from nearby West Jordan, Utah, has a 49-4 record.

Webb is rated fourth by Ring magazine and seventh by the National Boxing Assn.

Webb, 29-3 in his career, won four this year and was upset by Holly Mims.

Hunter Training Program Is Set Sept. 17 at KHS

District Game Protector William J. Goodman of the New York State Conservation Department today announced that the 1958 hunter training program for new nimrods will begin Wednesday, Sept. 17.

Classes will be held in the Vocational Building at Kingston High School and are scheduled to begin at 7 p. m. The classes will continue for the next four weeks on each Wednesday night.

Goodman said Ted Haines, National Rifle Association instructor, will be in charge of the classes, assisted by other NRA instructors.

Haines urged those interested to attend the early sessions of the course "as they may find themselves left out at the last moment after the hunting season begins."

Goodman noted the law provides that no person under 21 years of age who applies for a license to hunt in this state may be issued such a license unless he presents to the issuing clerk a certificate of qualification issued by a designated agent of the Conservation Department or a certified NRA instructor.

Young's Scoops Denied by All

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — General Manager Roy Hamey of the Philadelphia Phillies has denied a report he will be replaced by the Phils' recently rehired field manager, Eddie Sawyer.

Friend's Wife Cried – Why Not

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Bob Friend's wife, Pat, cried Wednesday night. But her tears were tears of happiness.

She shared the joy of her husband who became the first Pittsburgh Pirate pitcher since 1951 to win 20 games in one season and the first National League pitcher to accomplish the feat this year.

The right-hander, who broke into the majors in 1951 with the Pirates and whose best previous year was 1956 when he won 17, beat the San Francisco Giants 6-4 in 10 innings after a shaky start.

"It was the greatest thrill of my career, a milestone in my life," Friend said in the dressing room.

Friend allowed the Giants 12 hits, half of them coming in the first three innings. One of the hits was a two-run homer by Daryl Spencer in the third inning.

Gaucus-Massenas Win PGA Tourney

A dramatic ace (net) on the par four fifth—a 420-yard shot by Fred Murray and the 31-34—65 best ball of pro Johnny Gaucus and his Van Schaick member, Charles Massenas highlighted yesterday annual pro-amateur of the Eastern New York Golf Association at Normanside Country Club, Elmsmere, near Albany.

A prominent Albany attorney and former president of Van Schaick, Murray turned in a "first" when he holed a No. 6 iron second shot on the fifth for a natural eagle. It was the first time it has been accomplished.

With a stroke handicap, he carded an ace there and finished with Gaucas with a best ball of 67 tied for fourth place.

Joe Creavy, Colonie pro, Normanside's Rolly Peters, and Steve Savel, Western Turnpike pro, teamed with Mechanicville's Henry Durocher, a cousin of you-know-who, for 66's.

Dark Top Pick As Successor to Fred Hutchinson

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Alvin Dark and Birdie Tebbetts seem to be the most likely candidates to replace Fred Hutchinson, under fire as manager of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Reports that Hutchinson, along with all the Cardinals coaches, would be fired continued to mount despite denials.

Cardinal executives, including President August A. Busch, have repeatedly said no decision about a manager will be made until the season is over. But only Wednesday in New York, Dick Meyer said, "Frankly things don't look too good for Hutchinson right now."

Tebbetts, who recently quit as manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs, has talked with Cardinal officials. Meyer said he had talked to Tebbetts "but not about a managerial job." He did not elaborate.

Dark was traded by the Cardinals to the Cubs for pitcher Jim Brosnan early in the season. It is reported that when with the Redbirds he impressed team officials as possible manager material.

Luther Burbank developed a spineless cactus that proved to be a useful source of food for both men and animals.

Rhinebeck Speedway Finale Sets Big Saturday Field

Triple championships will be featured in the season's finale Saturday night at Rhinebeck Speedway with the biggest card of racing yet scheduled at the Fairgrounds oval.

The sedans will stage a 40-lap race for a big trophy and the Hudson valley championship while non-driving car owners will stage a race of 20 laps for a trophy.

The program will be topped by a 100-lap main event to be staged by the non-Ford stock cars for the Hudson Valley crown.

Russ Truelove will head the field. He is leading the seasonal standings as he sets himself to meet challenger Hoppy Jensen.

Saturday's race will conclude the 1958 season at the Dutchess County oval.

Say It Ain't So, Archie, Old Boy

LAS VEGAS, Nev. Sept. 10 (AP)—In the boxing record books, light-heavyweight champion Archie Moore is listed as forty-one-years-old.

Ol' Arch was in a mellow mood when he was spotted by a newspaperman, who asked:

I'm going to tell you something I've never told anyone else," Moore confided. "Next December 13 I'll be forty-nine."

Injury Saturation Point

Stress Passing on College Gridirons to Rest 'Horses'

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

After nearly two weeks of a two-a-day drills, the saturation point for injuries has hit many college football squads. Sessions have tapered off to prepping for Saturday's rugged scrimmages and significantly to some emphasis to the passing attack.

This latter mode of offense was seen in decline after last year's return to the running game. But, in order to give the ground offense and its rugged methods a respite, extensive aerial maneuvers highlighted the college scene—with a couple of surprising results.

One Way to Move

Indiana's Coach Phil Dickens isn't trying to fool any one about his need for passing.

"We're not going to overpower anyone on the ground so we'll probably throw the ball a lot if we can," he said.

Ohio State, making no bones earlier that it put its wealth on its ground game, turned to the air. Quarterback Frank Kremblas tossed two TD passes and his alternate, Jerry Fields, three in a scrimmage Wednesday.

Iowa State went to pass defense, working against Drake pass patterns in preparation for its opener. Illinois sought to correct some glaring deficiencies in its aerial defense after Tuesday's scrimmage.

Williams Sidelined

Notre Dame, with three regulars including quarterback Bob Williams sidelined with injuries, sent its reserve quarterbacks and offensive ends through extensive passing maneuvers. William and Mary Coach Milt Drewer found to his delight that quarterbacks Tom Secules and Bob Stoy gave the Indians an overhead potential.

The injury bug provided some much needed rest for West Virginia.

Marquette's Johnny Druze, looking for his first win in 20 games in his Sept. 20 opener, tapered off drills. Holy Cross and Colgate both eased up workouts while waiting for Saturday scrimmages against Brown and Delaware, respectively.

UCLA welcomed back from its disabled list Coach George Dickerson. He has been in the hospital since Aug. 30 from a nervous disorder.

Navy, with 13 varsity members on the injured list including All America tackle Bob Riefsnyder, has its rebuilding operations slowed considerably.

One-Point Conversion Is Choice at Cornell

Tom Skypeck, senior quarterback from Chicopee, Mass., and Dave Feeney, a junior from Neptune City, N. J., were put through a long place-kicking drill yesterday.

Under a rule change, running or passing on the try after touchdown will be worth two points in college football.

New NBA Prexy

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The new president of the National Boxing Assn. is Dr. Ward Wylie of Mullens, W. Va.

Elected Wednesday as the NBA concluded its convention, he succeeds Gilbert Jackson, Racine, Wis. Jackson was elected treasurer. Abe J. Greene, Paterson, N.J., was re-elected national commissioner

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By AL McCLANE
Fishing Editor

WILLIAM SIMMONS caught the most valuable fish in the world.

The Baltimore angler's qualifications are probably as amazing as the striped bass which had a gold tag looped through its jaw—worth $25,000.

Simmons was not only out of a job, but his wife was expecting a baby. While contemplating his future, Simmons dangled a now historic bait from the four-mile long Chesapeake Bay Bridge that connects Maryland's east and west shore.

The striped bass, or rockfish as they call them in these waters, was Diamond Jim III, the third in a series of stripers launched by a brewery. The idea is to promote Chesapeake tourist attractions, and presumably that malt product dear to the palate.

Doesn't Hurt Fish

Tagging doesn't hurt fish, and there's no reason to believe that the first two Diamond Jim stripers are not still on the loose.

In addition to the DJ's, the brewery released bass at Easton, Crisfield, Piney Point, Harve de Grace and St. Mary's County—all in the Maryland waters of Chesapeake. In each location, one bass worth $1,000, two worth $500 and two worth $250 were sent on their unpredictable way.

A New York daily newspaper released tagged trout in the Bronx River 25 years ago. The tags were valued at $5. The announcement caused subway jams.

The poor fish didn't have much chance of survival in the highly polluted water of 241st Street, but a big time was had by all.

Most of the tags were recovered and many a city lad had his first taste of angling.

Campy's Recovery In Good Stride

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "Now can touch any part of my body. I can feed myself. Maybe it doesn't sound like so much, but to me it is wonderful."

Roy Campanella smiled and raised his right hand toward the collar brace that held him erect in the wheelchair. The hospital room was jammed with reporters for the first full scale news conference since Roy's near-fatal auto crash Jan. 28.

"I've been in some tough spots with foul tips and things like that but nothing compared to this," he said. "the first tough one came after I slid off the road and hit that pole. I thought I'd turn the engine off. That's when I found out I was paralyzed.

"Then on the second day I came down with bronchial pheumonia and I couldn't breathe. They had to lance my throat and put a tube in.

Had Doubts at First

"I didn't think I'd make it that night. I really prayed. There I was paralyzed and couldn't breathe. It was a pretty tough feeling. It's wonderful to know how much I've improved."

Roy is thin compared to the 230-pound man who used to catch for the Dodgers when they still were in Brooklyn. Somehow he looks younger. They say he had trouble speaking at first but now his voice is strong enough.

He can't walk and nobody can say for sure that he ever will. He is limited in the time he can sit up and he has only partial use and control of his arms. The suspension frame has given way to a special bed from which he can easily be placed in a wheelchair.

He is just beginning training on propelling his chair and sliding with help into a car. The bulky neck frame has been revised to permit greater freedom of movement.

Pitching—Juan Pizarro, Braves, gained his first shutout in the majors with a three-hitter that beat the Redlegs 3-0. He walked four, struck out eight.

Hitting — Clint Courtney, Senators, drove in four runs in 5-4 victory over the Tigers, counting the clincher with a two-run homer in the eighth inning.

Methodist Men Growing

CHICAGO (AP) — "Methodist Men is now the largest men's organization of any protestant church in the world," says Dr. Robert G. Mayfield, general secretary of the Methodist Board of Lay Activities. He said the church now has 12,000 chartered men's clubs — 2,000 more than two years ago.

Old Tiger Stops Crawford in 10th

CHICAGO (AP) — Art student Mickey Crawford, fourth ranking welterweight contender, got himself put on canvas Wednesday night — but it wasn't a self protrait.

Tiger Jones, that old villain of televised fights who has spoiled many a youngster's hopes, decked Crawford twice with rights and the fight was stopped in 1:04 of the 10th round.

Crawford, 24, was six pounds overweight at 154. Apparently this excess baggage made him sluggish. Jones pumped shots at him nearly at will, chasing him around the ring in every round in what undoubtedly was the most road work the 30-year-old veteran has had for some time.

Crawford, raised in Saginaw, Mich., where his father, flyweight Patsy Crawford, operated a gym, invited right hand punches by keeping his left low. Jones obliged in rolling up these margins under the five-point system through the first nine rounds before winning by a technical knockout: Judge Lou Capparelli 45-36, Judge Jim McManus 44 - 38, Referee Joey White 43-39. The AP 45-39.

Jones weighed 155½ and collected his 12th knockout in winning 45 out of 73 starts. The defeat was Crawford's fourth in 27 bouts.

Royals, Leafs Cling Together

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Montreal and Toronto, which finished one-two during the regular season, have started the Calder Cup playoffs as if they intend to continue the duel right down to the finals. Each holds a 1-0 lead in the best-of-seven semifinals.

Toronto and Rochester got into action Wednesday night after being rained out Tuesday and the Maple Leafs won 6-3. Montreal and Columbus were rained out night after being rained out Tuesday and the Maple Leafs won 6-3. Montreal and Columbus were rained out Wednesday night but the Royals took their opener Tuesday.

They go at it again tonight with Bob Giallombardo (12-9) Montreal's mound choice against Lynn Lovenguth (12-13), veteran Jet righthander. At Toronto, it'll be Ed Blake (9-6) against Rochester's Dick Ricketts (15-13).

271 Score Will Win Says Palmer

DENVER (AP) — The PGA's leading money winner so far this year, Arnold Palmer from Latrobe, Pa., says a score of 271 to 273 should be enough to pick up the $2,000 first prize in the $20,000 Denver Open Centennial tournament beginning today.

The 72-hole medal play event will wind up Sunday.

"The greens are excellent, but the pins are in tough spots," Palmer said after a practice round in 70 strokes. He is this year's Masters Tournament champion and has collected $39,827 since the first of the year.

The first major PGA tournament in Denver in 10 years has galleryites about evenly divided between Palmer and Dow Finsterwald, National PGA champion from Tequesta, Fla., for the choice of favorite.

Triplets Take Southern Flag

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Almost before anyone could get used to the idea that Binghamton was, after all, a good baseball team, the Triplets won the Eastern League's Northern Division title.

They defeated the Williamsport Grays 5-1 Wednesday night for the third straight victory and a clean sweep of the best-of-five game semifinal playoff.

Lancaster, meanwhile, defeated York 8-2 to take a 2-1 lead in the best-of-five series for the Richardson Cup.

As in the first two games, Willimamsport could do little against Binghamton's pitching and timely hitting, and these were the same Triplets, who, after winning the Northern title for the first half of the season, fell to last place with a 21-41 record in the second half.

Legion Juniors In Final Round

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Greenwood (S.C.) and Cincinnati, the defending champion, clash tonight in the winners' bracket of the American Legion Junior Baseball World Series.

Greenwood took a 12-11 first round victory over Everett (Mass.), while Cincinnati squelched Billings (Mont.) Wednesday night 5-2. Everett and Billings were scheduled to meet this afternoon with the loser eliminated.

The finals are scheduled Saturday night.

Argue School Case on Friday

The long legal hassle in the Onteora-Woodstock school annexation reaches another milestone Friday when argument under a show cause order granted last week by Justice Isadore Bookstein which stayed the annexation of Woodstock School District No. 2 to Onteora Central will be heard by Supreme Court Justice Deckelman in Albany.

The order appealing a ruling by the office of the State Education Commissioner was set for last Friday, but was postponed because of the illness of attorney John Egan of Woodstock.

Rosenblum and Lamb of Saugerties and Egan will appear for the appellants, with attorney Vincent Connelly of Kingston representing the Onteora Central School district.

A vote favoring annexation with Onteora was taken in August of 1957. It was appealed in September 1957, but Commissioner of Education Allen didn't hold a public hearing on the appeal until May 2, 1958, and then issued no ruling until July 29, 1958. At that time he sustained the annexation and Onteora Central District moved forward with annexation proceedings. However, an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court and the stay order issued by Justice Bookstein.

Woodstock residents have been billed both by the Woodstock School District Two and by Onteora school district, but bills have been ordered held in abeyance until the court rules on the matter.

Artists to Name Officers Friday

The Board of Directors of the Woodstock Artists Association will meet Friday, Sept. 12, at the Art Gallery to elect officers of the Association for 1959.

Named to the board at a recent meeting were John McClellan, Gabriel Laderman, Alice Johnson, Bernard Steffen and Herman Oxhandler. The holdover members include president Tomas Penning, Arthur Zaidenburg, Rose Garlock, Manuel Bromberg and Ann Helioff.

It was announced at the annual session that Arnold Blanch, Will Eisner and Sidney Laufman have been appointed a Board of Trustees to administer the affairs of the late Jane Burr Winslow.

Mrs. Winslow left the estate in trust jointly to the town of Woodstock and to the Artists Association. but the town declined on technicalities and the Association accepted. Plans for its use are now being discussed and are expected to be announced in the near future.

Old Testament Is Sands Topic

An Old Testament scripture I Kings 17:8-16 and the New Testament found in I Peter 5:7 "Casting all your care upon God, for he careth for you" forms the theme from which the Rev. G. Oliver Sands will preach on Sunday at the 11 a. m. service in Christ Lutheran Church in Woodstock.

So many times we wonder about the material things when as Christians we really should believe that God will provide—"seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you." Let us come to church on Sunday and really "Throw away our worries." In these troubled days, let us learn how much we can depend upon our God. All are welcome.

Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. will include the adult class whose discussions will be on the theme, "Justice in Economic Life"; a newly-formed group studying "The Heart of the Bible" and classes for all ages. Come and study with us.

From 3 to 5 p. m. all parents and prospective teachers, officers and parents are urged to attend Leadership training in Kingston at the Redeemer Lutheran Church.

New School Policy

Mrs. Donald Zimmerman of Kingston, our Sunday School superintendent, presided over a meeting of teachers and officers last night at which, we feel, an epoch-making policy in more complete knowledge of the Bible was adopted.

Mrs. Sands, wife of the pastor, was given the chance to teach "The Heart of the Bible" by J. V. Nordgren, to all unconfirmed boys and girls over 12 years of age at Sunday school time. This will include a study of prayer and will be a precatechetical course for all those who wish to begin a study of "Learning the Way" under the pastor, beginning one year hence.

Marlin Klinger will present the same book to those already confirmed, beginning Oct. 5, if the group so desires.

This is a very challenging book we feel, published by the Augustana Synod (some of whose churches own the camp at Mt. Tremper.) It abounds in Bible quotations but gives no references.

Monday at 8 p. m. the Young Women's Guild meets at a place to be announced on Sunday.

The Church Council meets Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

The Fellowship Family meets at the Zena Country Club on Sunday, Sept. 29.

Choir rehearsals are held each Thursday — youth choir at 7 p. m. and Senior choir at 7:45 p. m. with the youth choir singing on alternate Sundays. This Sunday they hope to sing "Climbing Jacob's Ladder" by Roger E. Wilson. All juniors and youths are urged to attend rehearsals and help inspire us with their fresh young voices.

Girl Scouting Starts Oct. 6

Mrs. John Majoros, neighborhood chairman in the Woodstock-West Hurley neighborhood, has announced that Girl Scouting will start the week of October 6th, and plans are being made to have a meeting place which will be centrally located in the village.

There will be a reorganization of troops, with twenty-four girls in the intermediate troops, and sixteen girls in the Brownie Troops. All of the girls have been given forms to be signed by their parents, indicating whether or not they are interested in remaining in the Girl Scouts. This form is to be returned by September 16. Trained volunteer leaders are giving their time and efforts to have a full program for all girls who are sincerely interested in participating. A course in basic leadership will be given for the Saugerties, Onteora, Woodstock-West Hurley neighborhoods at the Woodstock School on September 16, 18, 23, and 25, at 7:30 p. m. each evening.

The Woodstock-West Hurley neighborhood meeting will be held at the Woodstock School on September 17 at 8 p. m., at which time plans will be made for the annual Fund Drive which is to be held the last two weeks in October.

Agapae Meeting Set For September 17

The regular meeting of Agapae Rebekah Lodge No. 623 was held Wednesday at the Bearsville Lodge with Mrs. Louise Tackella, Noble Grand, presiding.

Regular business was transacted and it was announced that the election of officers for the ensuing year would be held on Sept. 17.

A new sick committee for the month of September was named as follows:

Kingston-West Hurley-Hurley, Mrs. Claudia Haynes.

Shady-Lake Hill-Willow, Mrs. Anna M. Ostrander.

Woodstock - Zena, Mrs. Daisy Montgomery.

Refreshments were served after the meeting by Mrs. Louise Tackella, Mrs. Marjorie Harder and Miss Florence Peper.

Mission of the Church Topic for Rev. Olson

The sermon title for Sunday, Sept. 14, is "The Mission of the Church" at the Dutch Reformed Church in Woodstock. The Rev. Wayne C. Olson will attempt to answer the question, "Why Is the Church Here?"

Sunday school classes for all ages will meet at 9:30 a. m. The adult class, which convenes in the parsonage, will take a "survey of the Old Testament" for this Sunday's lesson.

C.E., the young people's society, meets at 6:30 to elect officers for the current year. The topic for the Bible-study period is "Paul, the Preaching Missionary." Mrs. Wayne Olson will serve refreshments to the group in the parsonage after the meeting.

Fire Company Has Drill Set Tonight

Woodstock Fire Company No. 1 will hold a fire drill tonight at 7 o'clock, Chief George Haythorne has announced. It was also announced that a meeting of the map and alarm committee will be held Friday, Sept. 12, at 7 p. m.

Duncan Wilson has been named chairman of an open house to be held on Saturday, Oct. 11, during Fire Prevention Week.

The fire company also voted to stage a ladies' night at their next monthly meeting on Monday, Oct. 6. At last week's September meeting, Chief Haythorne reported that after a two-months respite from fire alarms, two came within a couple of hours last Sunday. One was on Tannery Brook Lane and the other at the Pitcairn Estate. He praised the response and good work done by the members of the company.

Lutherans Planning Small Catechism Study

Pastor and Mrs. Sands of Christ Lutheran Church would be interested in starting a group in the study of Luther's Small Catechism on alternate Sunday nights beginning with the first Sunday in October if there are those among the parents of our Sunday School children and others who have never had the glorious privilege of learning how Martin Luther explains the Creed, the commandments, the Lord's Prayer, the sacraments, and duties of church membership. Mrs. Sands was born in an old school Baptist home and never studied the catechism until she was asked to teach it here in Sunday School. She has been thrilled by Luther's explanations, especially of the creed and the Lord's Prayer.

Some topics to be considered are: Duties to God and our fellowmen as set forth in the commandments; I believe in God, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Ghost; The Lord's Prayer; Baptism; the Lord's Supper; Worship; Stewardship; the Lutheran service and symbols.

Town Notes

Barbara Moncure, Woodstock's famous ballad singer and composer, will give a concert of Catskill Mountain folk songs at Union College in Schenectady on Saturday, Sept. 13, at 8 p. m.

Maurice F. Hamilton, publisher of the Woodstock Press, left today to attend the three-day convention of the New York weeklies publishers at Lake Placid.

Agapae Rebekah Lodge No. 623 will hold its annual election of officers at its next meeting Wednesday, Sept. 17, at Odd Fellows Hall in Bearsville. Mrs. Louise Tackella is the present Grand Noble.

The first meeting of the Onteora Central School P-TA will be held Tuesday, Sept. 16, at 7:30 p. m. at the school. John Moehle, supervising principal at Onteora Central, will speak.

Woodstock Fire Company Two will meet on Monday, September 15, at the Wittenberg fire house.

The WSCS will meet on Monday, Sept. 15, at 8 p. m. at the Youth Center in Wittenberg. Elizabeth Shultis and Crystal Vredenburg will serve refreshments.

The Woodstock Home Demonstration Unit will sponsor a bus trip to New York, Thursday, Sept. 25. The bus will leave the village green at 8 a. m. and return at 8 p. m. Call Elsie Erts for reservations, OR 9-6546.

Miss Florence Peper and Mrs. Edwin Holumzer wish to remind members and friends of Christ Lutheran Church parish of the food sale to be held on the church lawn this Saturday, beginning at 10 a. m.

Woodstock P-TA

Woodstock Parent Teachers Association will hold its first meeting of the season and an open house this evening. All parents are invited and they will have the opportunity of meeting the teachers and inspect the classrooms.

Net Profit

'Fruit' Roses

First roses to be cultivated in ancient Old World gardens were valued for their fruits rather than their flowers. Rose fruits returned to favor in Great Britain during World War II.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

HAVE LAND WILL SELL PRIVATE LAKE BARGAIN ONLY $10,000

Yes, I'll agree it sounds fantastic but it is a fact and I believe without a doubt it is a tremendous bargain for anyone who can use it. I must hasten to say that the Real Estate Company, Hudson Counties Estates, Inc., in which Mrs. Gross and I hold stock in has a half interest in this property. The property comprises approximately 36 acres. It is located on a macadam road, just off Rte. 32 at DeWitt Mills, 3 miles out. To reach it, instead of turning right to DeWitt Lake, one turns left to the property. A small pond, made by an improvised dam, is already there. Beyond this is a smaller lake, created by an earth dam and water to this comes from an abundant never failing spring. Part of the land is level to rolling. Suitable for development of campsites, the balance is in picturesque pine woods. It is ideal for children's or adult camp.

THE TITLE IS PERFECT

Morrison Fined $40 for Way He Treated Animals

A 36-year-old former cowboy, reputedly engaged in the promotion of small rodeo shows in New York state, who was arrested last February charged with cruelty to animals, entered a plea of guilty yesterday and was fined $40 by Justice of the Peace Arthur Reilly of the town of Ulster.

He is Clyde Morrison of RD 3, Box 312, Saugerties, who was arrested in mid-February by Raymond Winne, special agent for the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and Constable Joseph Lamphere of the town of Ulster.

Provisions Lacking

It was charged in the complaint that Morrison kept a large stock of animals on property leased from Ernest Fabiano of Glasco, located on Route 32 in Flatbush about six miles from Kingston.

He went to New York early last February, leaving the animals without adequate provisions. The animals were reportedly used in rodeo shows.

Fabiano brought a complaint at that time that the animals were being neglected and that a family occupying the home was without food or heat. The family, consisting of Mrs. Peola Teasley and her four grandchildren ranging in age from six to 13, were reportedly brought up from New York City by Morrison who rented part of the house to them.

In Pitiable Shape

Winne and Lamphere found a Brahma bull dead, another dying and the remainder of the stock, with the exception of some of the horses who were permitted to forage for themselves, in pitiable condition.

The stock consisted of the two bulls, two long-horn steers, eight horses, four goats and four dogs. The dogs, described as "nothing but skin and bone," were beginning to feed on the dead bull which lay in the stable.

Winne purchased half a ton of hay and a bag of feed for the animals. Application was made to the town welfare officer for food and fuel for the family.

Winne has served as special agent for the ASPCA for the past 12 years.

SIDE GLANCE — U.S. Navy men are keeping a wary eye on Vladivostok, Soviet Russia's big Far East naval base. It is estimated that the Soviets have from 75 to 125 submarines operating from there. They could damage our Seventh Fleet if war broke out in Formosa Strait. Waters around Quemoy and Matsu islands are too shallow for submarine warfare.
